4 Slightly Injured in Accidents

A retired Congressman from Sweden was among four persons injured slightly Monday in minor accidents in the city.

Suffering from cuts and bruises was Johan O. Gavell, 71, of 772 E. Maple, who was struck by a car at Hunter and Maple roads Monday afternoon.

THE DRIVER, James A. Elcar, 61, of Elcar, an unemployed meat cutter, told police he was just passing the green light when he suddenly saw Gavell in the street. Although he swerved, the side of his car struck the victim slightly and he was knocked down. Gavell was taken to Beaumont hospital for treatment and held for observation.

Witnesses said that Gavell was walking against the red light and did not hear the shouts warning him about the car. Gavell does not speak English.

INJURED in other accidents were Sam Pope, 6, of 504 West Frank, Birmingham; Victoria Dybowski, 42, of Milford, and Mary Stock, of Walled Lake.

The Pope youth was injured when the bicycle he was riding was struck at the corner of Stanley and Frank at 6:30 p.m. Monday.

Richard W. Kelley, 18, of 659 Wallace, Birmingham, was charged by police with failing to yield right-of-way as his car struck the boy.

MRS. DYBOWSKI and Mrs. Stock were slightly injured when their car was struck from the rear by an auto driven by Mrs. Delores J. Frank, 6340 Lakeshore, Orchard Lake.

Mrs. Frank told police she had just come out of a sudden rain storm when she saw the Dybowski car at the Hunter-Oakland light.

She said she put on the brakes, but the car slid on the wet pavement and struck the car in front.

Silent Treatment
Given to Motion

Since one street sale had already been approved for Birmingham in the month of September, the city commission Monday night turned down a second request for funding on local streets. At the same time the commissioners were presented with a motion from Commissioner Carl Ingraham to "cease giving permission for street fund-raising."

Ingraham's motion was met with silence, then a cautious, "Let's take a look at it first" from Commissioner William Roberts.

Roberts had earlier stated that both he and Ingraham favored a review of the city's policy on street sales, especially as to organizations from outside the city limits soliciting for funds here.

IT WAS THAT that Ingraham observed that the policy would be necessary if all street sales were halted, and made his motion.

The request turned down Monday was from the South Oakland county chapter of Disabled American Veterans, located in Royal Oak. They sought to hold their annual forget-me-not sale, Sept. 18th and 19th in Birmingham. Present city policy is to limit sales to one per month.
