

So many of us reach adulthood, having "dragged" with us a variety of attitudes and habits that need to be supplanted with better substitutes. We may talk too much, read too little, think too superficially, allow foolish jealousy to join an undisciplined emotion and do harm—we may be too selfish, waiting in the art of appreciation—of being ungrateful for the basic blessings we now have.

Couple Exchange Vows Saturday Afternoon

Edna Pauline Carlson became the bride of Gary A. Wilson Saturday afternoon at Mission Covenant church. The Rev. Elmer Christianson performed the 2 o'clock ceremony in the presence of 65 guests.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Carlson of Pontiac, wore a gown fashioned of nylon lace and taffeta designed with a V-neckline, short sleeves and fitted bodice. A lace cap secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a Bible centered with sweetheart roses.

THE GROOM of Fairfax road, Birmingham, asked his brother, Thomas J. Wilson, to be best man. Ushers were Craig H. Wilson of Akron, Ohio, and Kenneth L. Wheeler of Plymouth, Mich. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Loudon Wilson of Lake Orion. Mrs. Kenneth Wheeler of Plymouth was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a blue silk organza gown featuring a V-neckline, fitted bodice, short sleeves and gathered street-length skirt.

HER SEMI-CRESCENT bouquet was of yellow and white daisies and sweetheart roses with ivy. Leslie Wilson, niece of the groom, served as flower girl. She appeared in a yellow silk organza dress and carried a lace basket of rose petals. Ring bearer was Victor Wheeler, nephew of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Carlson chose a navy chiffon dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Wilson selected a light blue dress with white accessories. Both mothers had corsages of carnations and sweetheart roses.

A RUFFET luncheon was served at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony.

Evelyn Wheelock Charles Hood Wed

Christ Church Cranbrook was the scene Saturday evening for the marriage of Evelyn Kay Wheelock and Charles Carlisle Hood, Jr. The Rev. William Norvell performed the 7:30 o'clock ceremony in the presence of 250 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. Hugo Harris Wheelock of Red Maple lane, Birmingham, and the late Mr. Wheelock. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Hood of Manor road, Birmingham.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her brother, Eugene Kelly Wheelock, the bride appeared in a princess style gown fashioned of ivory de-lustered satin designed with a portrait neckline, traditional bridal sleeves and chantilly lace panel accenting the softly draped skirt. A Juliet cap of matching chantilly lace secured her fingertip veil of French illusion. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and an orchid.

Nancy Carlisle of Oakhills drive, Bloomfield township, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. James Matthew Lemore of Grandfield, Mrs. Donald J. Morgan of Grandfield road, and Jane McDaniel of W. Glengarry circle, all of Birmingham.

ATTENDANTS WORE identical dresses of white organza over taffeta styled with bell-shaped skirts and empire effect ending at the back in a cash of yellow satin. Their headpieces were fashioned of matching pale yellow satin in the shape of Dior bows. They carried bouquets of full mums.

Frank Warfall Burr of Villa road, Birmingham, stood as best man. Ushers were James Lamore and Donald Morgan of Birmingham, Robert Morris Halsted, the bride's brother-in-law, of Bloomfield township, and Kurt Wheelock, bride's brother, of Detroit.

GAIL HALSTED served as flower girl. She wore a Kate Greenaway version eyelet embroidery matching the bridesmaids' dresses and carried an old-fashioned nosegay of pale yellow sweetheart roses and baby's breath.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Wheelock chose a turquoise chiffon dress with matching accessories. Mother of the groom selected a cocoa brown chiffon dress with matching accessories. Both mothers had orchids.

A garden reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Halsted of Red Maple lane, Bloomfield township.

Fraser new Mrs. Hood changed into a beige silk outfit with matching accessories for her wedding trip to Northern Michigan.
