POWER LAWNMOWER

It cuts like an army through tangled regions—The weeds fall before it like Caesar's legions; Then just as the end of the battle's in sight It sputters and coughs and refuses to fight!

It Begins Well

"All's well"—That's what Junior Achievement board president James M. Roche (right) seems to be telling new JA advisor Woody Wilson of Great Lakes Steel Corporation at JA's kick-off of its '59-'60 adviser training program held in Detroit last week. Roche, General Motors vice president and general manager of the Cadillac Motor Car division lives at 425 Dunston, Bloomfield Hills. Both men welcomed some 300 volunteer advisers at the training kick-off. More than 1100 advisers are expected to counsel more than 360 JA firms this fall.

Troy Commissioner, Mayor at Odds On 'Secret Meetings'

TROY — Troy Mayor Robert L. Huber and Commissioner Louis Yanich differed Monday on the interpretation of "informal study sessions" and "secret meetings."

Yanich believes that all sessions of legislative bodies should be made public. If you're referring to this commission," Huber told Yanich, "I can assure you we have never had a secret meeting." Huber said there have been "informal study sessions" but insisted that as long as no formal action is taken, the sessions do not constitute a regular meeting.

Yanich has frequently accused the mayor and fellow commissioners of holding secret executive sessions and pre-planning formal action.
