

SOCIETY

Newlywed MacLennans Motoring to New York

Congregational church in Birmingham was the scene Saturday evening for the marriage of Dorothy Frances Ojala and Donald Wallace MacLennan. The Rev. Raymond A. Fenner performed the 7:30 o'clock ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. George Harold Ojala of Ann Arbor, Mich., and the late Mr. Ojala. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Parker MacLennan of Taylor, Mich.

THE BRIDE wore a white silk gown designed with a shirring neckline bordered with alencon lace, three quarter sleeves and full skirt with motifs of alencon lace. A pillbox secured her elbow-length veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of white staph with stephanotis and trailing ivy.

Mary Lillian Ojala was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Philip A. Thomas of Indianapolis, Ind., Mrs. Thomas Coatsworth of Blenheim, Ont., and Mrs. William Stephens of Birmingham.

THEY WORE MINT green peau de sole dresses with boat necklines, short sleeves and full skirts. Round circlets of mint green peau de sole bordered by green leaves secured their veiling. Rhubarum lilies and pink sweetheart roses made up their bouquets.

H. Rand Ojala of Dearborn stood as best man and ushers were Ralph J. Enos of Royal Oak, Fredrick Ouellette and Robert C. Davis, both of Ann Arbor.

Mother of the bride chose a blue shantung sheath with a blue flowered hat. Mrs. MacLennan selected a dusty rose lace dress. Both mothers had cymbidium orchids.

THE YOUNG COUPLE are motoring to their new home in Corning, N. Y. Dorothy wore a brown print dress with matching jacket and beige accessories to start her travel.

Students

(Continued from Page 1-C)

Host said, "Or he may want to go to your church or just spend a lazy Sunday morning at home."

"DON'T PLAN a party or reception and don't try and keep the children out of the way. The student will probably be more interested in them than the adults."

"And don't try to make their home-country dishes, treat them to American food. He will be disappointed if you don't."

MRS. DONALD W. MACLENNAN

Peter Ulbrich, Mary Delahanty

Holy Name church was the scene Saturday morning for the marriage of Mary Jane Delahanty and Peter James Ulbrich. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Eugene Padlock officiated at the 11 o'clock ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Delahanty of Larches drive, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil A. Ulbrich of Detroit.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her father, the bride appeared in a gown of pale ivory peau de sole featuring a scooped neckline edged with chantilly lace and three quarter sleeves. Its narrow waist emphasized with lace swept into a wide bell-shaped skirt with chapel train.

Her veil of pure silk illusion was caught by a half-hat of matching lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of amazon lilies, stephanotis, ivy and roses.

MRS. RICHARD DANKE, sister of the bride, came from Des Moines, Iowa, to be maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mary Anne and Margaret Ulbrich, sisters of the groom, Margaret von Rosen, Mary Jo Steiger, Mary Ann Meier and Mrs. Richard Condit.

They wore princess frocks of romance-blue organza emphasized by chantilly lace at the neckline. Matching blue wispy veils scattered with tiny white flowers completed their ensembles and they carried cascade bouquets of white carnations, stephanotis and ivy.

Matches blue with white flowers included the bride's brother, William and Edward Delahanty, Richard Danke, Michael Kovacs, William Yett, Joseph Bonanno, and Joseph McDonnell.

FOR THE BREAKFAST reception at Kingsley Inn, the mother of the bride greeted guests in a blue print voile sheath dress with a sequined bodice. Her small hat was made of blue and white flowers.

Mrs. Ulbrich wore a grey silk organza dress with white embroidery on the bell-shaped skirt and a matching hat. Both mothers pinned white cymbidium orchids to their dresses.

The bride donned a turquoise silk-linen jacket dress with white accessories for the wedding trip to Virginia Beach.

The young couple will reside in Southfield township.

2-C THE BIRMINGHAM (MICH.) ECCENTRIC Aug. 27, 1959 T. Vanden Bosch, Claudia L. Taylor

The Rev. Robert W. Gibson of the First Presbyterian church performed the double ring ceremony Saturday for the marriage of Claudia Louise Taylor and Thomas Hessel Vanden Bosch, Jr. Vows were heard at 8 o'clock in the presence of 300 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Taylor of Arlington drive, Beverly Hills. She is the son of Dr. and Mrs. T. H. Vanden Bosch of Grand Rapids.

THE BRIDE APPEARED in a floor length gown of silk taffeta featuring a princess waistline and very full skirt falling into a chapel train. Re-embroidered Brussels lace and seed pearls encircled the scoop neckline and backrollar petals.

A small crown accented by seed pearls secured her silk illusion veiling. She carried a small cascade of ivy, stephanotis and a few deep pink sweetheart roses.

MRS. ROGER SIDES, matron of honor, wore a short frock of deep pink organza with a full back panel of silk falling from a soft fabric rose at the back neckline. Ivy and deep pink sweetheart roses made up her cascade.

Bridesmaids were Beverly Barchi of Detroit, Margo Harris of Amsterdam, N. Y., Mrs. Ronald Petrella of St. Clair Shores, and Frances Wilcox of Hyattsville, Md. They wore identical dresses to the matron of honor's.

Ensign Kerry Johnson of Long Beach, Calif., served as best man. Ushers were Gerald Ebmeyer of Ann Arbor, Robert Bickert of Wauwatosa, Wisc., John Taylor of Royal Oak, James Vanden Bosch of Grand Rapids and William Vanden Bosch of Kalamazoo.

RECEPTION followed the ceremony at Forest Lake Country club for 300 wedding guests.

Mrs. Taylor wore a gown of turquoise silk chiffon with a cowl back drupe neckline and a matching belt studded with crystals. She pinned greens and stephanotis to her handbag.

The groom's mother selected white roses and greens to go with her gown of wood veiled nylon chiffon over matching taffeta and accessories.

F. J. Weinrich, Mary Worley

Church of the Annunziata, Ladue, Mo., was the scene Saturday morning for the marriage of Mary Marcia Worley and Frederick Joseph Weinrich. Vows were heard at 11 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Worley of St. Louis, Mo., formerly of Franklin. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy J. Weinrich of Derry road, Bloomfield Hills.

THE BRIDE appeared in a gown fashioned of silk organza designed with a lace bodice, short sleeves and empire waist. A double crown with seed pearls secured her finger veil of silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Alfred Luthard of Phoenix, Ariz., served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. David P. Kelley of Birmingham, Mrs. John R. Chase of Chicago, and Gail Hullinger of Royal Oak.

BASKETS OF white and yellow daisies complimented their dresses of yellow organza. They wore narrow straw picture hats.

Thomas Scott Weinrich, brother of the groom, stood as best man. Ushers were George Perles of Allen Park, Thomas Mitchell of Detroit, Dale Hamilton of Columbus, Ohio, and Mitchell Kin, brother of the bride, of Chicago.

Mrs. Frumkin greeted guests in a dress of ice blue lace and chiffon with matching accessories. Her flowers were pink sweetheart roses.

MRS. WERTHMAN selected a dress fashioned of pink organza with matching hat and shoes. She had heart-shaped roses.

Following the ceremony, dinner was served at the Rotunda Inn. The newlyweds traveled to North-eastern Michigan for their wedding trip.

Bowen Brook, Joy Venola

Wearing an elegant gown of Dresden silk, Joy Diane Venola became the bride of Bowen Rice Brook Saturday evening at Christ Church in Cranbrook. The Rev. William C. Norvell performed the single ring ceremony in the presence of 500 guests.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Venola of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand M. Brook of Lone Pine court, Bloomfield Hills.

HER GOWN featured a scooped neckline and long tapering sleeves. The skirt was showered with appliques of re-embroidered alencon lace and seed pearls. A crown of rosepointe lace embroidered with seed pearls secured her three tiered veil of French silk illusion.

Mrs. Robert Holstein of Detroit was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Paul Hines of Detroit, Mrs. Donald Hamilton of Warren, Mrs. John Smith of Warren and Mrs. Ronald Steadman of Riverview.

The five wore wedgewood blue gowns of silk organza over taffeta designed with Queen Anne necklines and carried nosegays of pink sweetheart roses and bachelor buttons with ivy.

THE GROOM asked Anthony Pew of Bloomfield Hills to be best man. Ushers were Jerry Florez, Jerry Towns, Robert Holstein and Joseph Venola, Jr.

Reception followed at Hillcrest Country club. The Brooks flew to Cape Cod for their wedding trip.

Robert Ketchum, Marilyn Benson

Two hundred guests attended the wedding of Marilyn Frances Benson and Robert Scott Ketchum Saturday afternoon at Christ Church in Cranbrook. Vows were repeated at 3:30 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Einar T. Benson of Chester, N. J. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Berrien C. Ketchum of Suffield road, Birmingham.

THE BRIDE'S GOWN was fashioned of dulcinated satin featuring a scooped neckline outlined with cut velvet appliques and pearls, princess lines and a skirt forming circular chapel train.

A silk illusion veil was secured by a headpiece of seed pearls. She carried a prayer book with a floral cascade.

Susan Grace Ketchum was honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Sandra Maris, Barbara Teimeyer and Elsie Gunnerson.

THEY APPEARED in dresses of silk organza in open neck with princess lines. Headpieces were beaded Juliet caps and carried yellow daisies.

Charles McNary stood as best man and seating the guests were Robert Benson, Jack Herman, Walter Winget and Thaddeus Ketchum.

Mother of the bride wore a grey silk organza sheath with yellow accessories and orchid. Mr. Ketchum chose a blue shantung sheath with a white orchid.

ORCHID LAKE Country Club was the scene for the reception. The newlyweds are off to White Mountain, N. H., Hampshire, for their wedding trip.

Club Calendar

September 1

Past officers of Pride of Oakland, Rebekah lodge 445 of Birmingham will open their season meet, which parties are all news—calling at the home of Mrs. Ethel Birmingham Community House at 8 p.m.

Clark, 5182 Chicago road, Warren, with a pot luck luncheon at noon. Co-hostess will be Mrs. Edna Luth of Birmingham. Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news—calling at the home of Mrs. Ethel Birmingham Community House at 8 p.m.

Quality built in... not rubbed on.

Style No. 7413
Dark Brown Patent
Veal Blucher Wing Tip
$35.50
Also Style No. 7414
In Black. $35.50

FRENCH SHRINER
MEN'S Extra Quality SHOES

If you appreciate fine craftsmanship you owe it to yourself to "discover" French Shiner shoes.

Young's
OF Birmingham
203 PIERCE STREET

Open Friday
Evenings
Till 9

Stewart-Glenn
1680 South Telegraph Road • Federal 2-8343

LAST 4 DAYS
MID-SUMMER
FURNITURE
SALE

up to 40% off

Famous nationally advertised brands all reduced during our annual sale... Living Room, Dining Room, Bedroom, Family Room, Patio Furniture... all accessories reduced! Shop Now through Monday Evening for these great values!

OPEN TONIGHT
CONVENIENT BUDGET TERMS

Stewart-Glenn
1680 South Telegraph Road
Just South of Orchard Lake Road

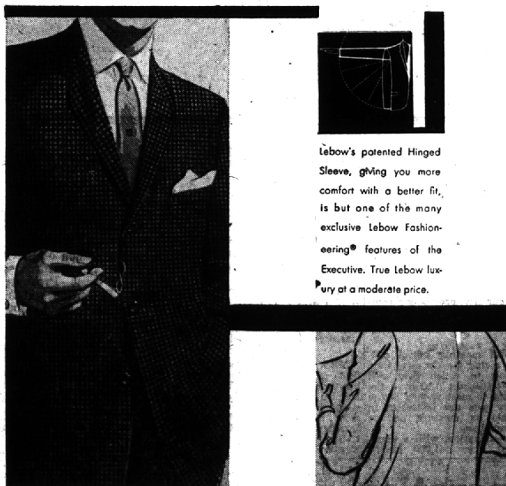

Interior Decorating Service at No Additional Cost

Open Thurs., Fri., Mon., Evns. Free Parking Air Conditioned

NOW... WITH THE NEW ARRIVALS... OUR SELECTION OF LEBOW CLOTHES IS THE LARGEST IN OUR MANY YEARS

THE LADY SAYS "YES"
TO THE LEBOW MAN

EXECUTIVE

Lebow's patented Hinged Sleeve, giving you more comfort with a better fit, is but one of the many exclusive Lebow fashioning features of the Executive. True Lebow luxury at a moderate price.

A magnificent range of Lebow Fashioned® suits in a wide collection of new imported and domestic fabrics. Choose from a complete selection that also includes the new "Bark Shades".

We especially recommend No. 8132, a new houndstooth check in medium grey.

Young's
of
Birmingham
203 Pierce Street

Open Friday
Evenings
Till 9