Dolores Smith Weds James Lewis Dill

The Rev. James A. Noon, CSP, came from Boston, Mass., to officiate at the 11 o'clock marriage of Dolores Bender Smith and James Lewis Dill at St. Hugo of the Hills church in Bloomfield Hills.

Dolores, daughter of the Albert E. Smiths of Purdie road, Birmingham, chose a white silk organza over taffeta gown. The oval neckline and fitted bodice were accentuated by hand-corded alencon lace and tiny seed pearls.

THE DOME SHAPED skirt was highlighted by a row of alencon lace and seed pearls that extended into a chapel train. Her Mary Queen of Scots cap of bouquet neckline and fitted bodice were accented by two tiers of pure silk illusion.

The bride wore a string of pearls that her mother had worn on her wedding day. She carried a cascade of white fuji and matching alencon lace fell into two tiers of pure silk illusion veil.

MARY ANNE Sweeney of Birmingham, was chosen as maid of honor. Mrs. Paul Centers of Livonia, matron of honor. Mrs. Thomas E. Shea, Jr., of Harper Woods, Dianna Martin of Detroit, Grace Schille of Detroit, Shirley Wood of Miami, were bridesmaids. Carolyn Cassin of Shaker Heights was junior bridesmaid.

They all wore gowns of peacock silk organza over taffeta. The princess styled dresses featured a fitted bodice and scooped neckline and skirts with deep hemlines. Their headpieces were a swirl peacock silk organza band with silk illusion veil.

THE MAID OF HONOR carried a cascade of white fuji and yellow snowdrift mums backed with white moline. Matron of honor, bridesmaids and junior bridesmaids carried cascades of yellow fuji and yellow snow-drift mums backed with yellow moline.

Mr. Dill, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Dill of Detroit, chose John R. Canar of Detroit to be best man. Thomas E. Johnson, Edward Ewing, Edmond J. Dilworth, Jr., Edward Nelson, Robert Schreiner and Albert W. Smith II were selected to seat guests.

The bride's mother wore a stunning Edward Abbott original of imported chantilly lace in a brilliant shade of royal blue. The dress featured a full skirt, high jewelry neckline and long sleeves. She carried white cymbidium orchids on her aqua satin clutch bag.

MRS. DILL wore an exquisite dress of beige organza over taffeta. The princess styled dress featured a fitted bodice and portrait neckline. She carried cymbidium orchids on her beige satin clutch bag.

Mr. and Mrs. Dill flew to Bermuda for two weeks to stay at the Elbow Beach Surf club. Upon their return, they will make their home in Birmingham.
