Fashion Review Draws Near

Preparations for the Tea and Fashion Review given by the St. Joseph Mercy hospital auxiliary on Sept. 23 are near completion reports Mrs. Forrest Rorabaugh, chairman of the event. Wrapping packages at a meeting last week at the home of Mrs. Rorabaugh on Lancaster road, Bloomfield township, are (from left standing) Mrs. Shirley Kalbfleisch of Colony court, Birmingham, and Mrs. Gisela Schmieding of Littell, West Bloomfield township, and (sitting) Mrs. Rorabaugh. The tea will be at the Elks Temple from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. Music at intermission will be provided by a Dixie Land band. Fashions will be modeled by members and professional models. The public is cordially invited.

Mackey-Caddell Exchange Vows

At a double ring ceremony, Carol Jean Caddell, became the bride of James Kent Mackey Aug. 15 at Redford Presbyterian church. Dr. Harry Rine DeYoung performed the 8 o'clock ceremony in the presence of 200 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey J. Caddell of San Jose, Lathrup Village. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lantz L. Mackey of San Jose, Lathrup Village.

THE BRIDE appeared in a Dresden style floor length gown in blossom white with re-embroidered appliques of salmon lace, accented with pearls on silk organza. Her gown featured a scooped neckline, short sleeves and cathedral train. A crown of pearls secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of amaranth lilies, ivy and white roses. Honor attendant was Judy Caddell and bridesmaids were Mrs. Edward Martin, Jr., Pat Cogger, Susanne La Barge, Pat Thompson and Donna Tigelaar.

THEY WORE ice blue silk shantung dresses designed with short sleeves and a scooped neckline. Headresses were blue whimsical with tiny velvet bows. They carried yellow fuji mums. Lantz L. Mackey, Jr., stood as best man. Ushers were Edward Martin, Jr., Ray Schumaker, Jim Caddell and Terry Kiewer.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Caddell chose a mint green lace and chiffon over taffeta dress with yellow sweetheart roses. Mother of the groom selected a powder blue lace dress with silk organza skirt. She carried rubrum lilies.

THE NEWLYWEDS are off to the Finger Lakes, in New York State. The Mackeys will live in Harper Woods.

Girls Sew Sew For Singer Style Contest

The sewing machines stop whirring and the judging begins Tuesday Sept. 1, as Birmingham girls from 10 to 21 submit the products of their imaginations and machines to be judged in the 1959 Singer Stylemaker contest at the Singer Sewing center, 323 E. Maple, Birmingham.

The contestants have been visiting the center since mid-April, taking sewing lessons and putting together garments.

THE LOCAL contest, 7 p.m. at the center is open to the public.

Aug. 27, 1959 THE BIRMINGHAM (MICH.) ECCENTRIC 5-C said Charles Krupitzer, manager. Mrs. Ruth Hawkins, teacher, said winners would be chosen in three divisions: Tweeners (10 to 13 years), Teens (14 to 17) and Misses and Mrs. (18 to 21).

The three winners will receive sewing boxes; their creations will be sent to a regional contest. Regional winners—108 garments—go on to New York where a panel of experts will trim the field down to 15 international winners.

THE 15 WINNERS will go to New York where they will model their entries before a panel of fashion and sewing experts.

Each teen second-place winner receives $400; first place gets in addition a one-week tour of US historical places for herself and parents.

Second place teens get $200 cash
