Patricia Brickley Wears Silk Organza

Patricia Marie Brickley became the bride of Robert Jerome Mitchell Aug. 8 at Goss church. The bride's uncle, the Rev. Henry W. Keenan performed the 10 o'clock ceremony in the presence of 300 guests.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond P. Brickley of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. Melville J. Mitchell of Colby lane, Birmingham.

THE BRIDE was attired in a princess line gown of silk organza over tulle tulle complemented by a headpiece wreath of flower appliques. She carried feathered nosegay surrounding a white orchid. Judith Brickley, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Margaret Brickley, Jane Manning and Mrs. Jerome Geisler.

They were dressed alike in white organdy with cerise cummerbunds and carried sprays of red carnations. Their headpieces were white Dior bows.

THE GROOM asked his brother-in-law, Jerome Geisler, to be his best man. Ushers were William and Gerald Brickley, brothers of the bride, and Edward Bechtold. The bride's mother chose a sheath styled of smoke colored lace over pink tulle with matching accessories. Mrs. Mitchell selected an arcaid blue silk dress with a lace bodice. Both mothers wore white orchids.

MRS. ROBERT MITCHELL

Immediately following the ceremony a garden reception was at Bedford Inn. After a motor trip to Florida the couple will reside in Birmingham.

Episcopal Church Scene of Ceremony

St. James Episcopal church was the scene Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Jean McKee and Donald C. Nichols. Vows were spoken at 4 o'clock.

MRS. DONALD NICHOLS

The bride is the daughter of the James H. Spencers of Shirley drive, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of the Leonard E. Nichols of Lahar road, Birmingham.

SHE WORE her sister's gown of white silk dupion featuring a round neckline embroidered in seed pearls with lace on fitted bodice. A tulle of seed pearls secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade of white roses centered with a white orchid.

Maid of honor was Susan Meade Sutherland and bridesmaids were Michael Forster, Mrs. Robert Harrison, Sheila Curry and Allison Woodhouse.

They wore two-tone blue summer satin gowns featuring bows at waistline. Their colonial bouquets were made up of white rosebuds and blue stephanotis.

BEST MAN was Charles Bonnett and ushers were Donald Spencer, Leonard E. Nichols and John Nichols.

Following a reception at Detroit Athletic club, the newlyweds left for a wedding trip out west.

Mother of the bride chose a blue chiffon dress and Mrs. Nichols wore an emerald green silk chiffon.
