

Foxcroft Starts Plans For Annual Barbecue

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP NORTH—FOX-CROFT—How to make a bike look beautiful, funny or unusual—that's what Foxcroft small fry have on their minds these days as they look forward to Sept. 13 at 3 p.m. and a chance to win a prize in the bike parade which will start things rolling at the annual Foxcroft barbecue.

Co-chairmen for the big event are Mrs. Douglas Campbell and Mrs. R. E. Stanford. The bike parade is being planned by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boukens and judging will be done by Improvement association officers, John Black, Jim Douglas, Ed Bore and Mrs. Wright Hitt.

Judy Johnson and her committee are planning games for children and John Lifsey will organize adult games. Gallons and gallons of gingerale have been ordered for the soft drink stand which will be operated by Jack Kernshaw.

Bill and Bob Coxon will have their hi-fi equipment ready to provide background music and Russ Stanford will again act as master of ceremonies.

A new and different picnic supper is being planned this year by Mrs. Richard DeFord, Mrs. Arthur Hawkes, Mrs. H. E. Twietmeyer, Mrs. Robert Smith and Mrs. John Lifsey.

Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, Girl Scouts and Brownies will assist with serving and clean-up under the supervision of the Robert O. Lenses and the C. J. Van Halterens.

Other committee chairmen are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Burnett, Mrs. F. O. Gadd and Mrs. James Hall. Reservations are being taken by Mrs. Douglas Campbell and Mrs. R. E. Stanford.

FOX-CROFT—Mr. and Mrs. John Cutter, of East Surrey, are home again after a round of summer travel. Mrs. Cutter left first for Washington, D.C. and a visit with friends. Cutter joined her there and they flew to San Juan where they attended the Governor's conference. A wedding was next on their schedule and this took them to San Antonio. Their son, Ronald, was married to Susanna Lang, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. James V. Lang. The wedding took place in the chapel at Fort San Houston and a reception followed at the Officer's club. The newlyweds will make their home in Washington, D.C.

FOX-CROFT—Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Blom of West Surrey returned last week after vacationing for a month in Wisconsin and Ill. With their children they spent two weeks with Blom's family, Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Rothgabel, and two weeks with Mrs. Blom's family, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Rothgabel.

FOX-CROFT—More returning vacationers are the David Bartons, of Orchard Way. Mrs. Barton and Linda spent several weeks with their family at their cottage on Mullett Lake and Barton joined them for weekends.

FOX-CROFT—A visit with former neighbors was the highlight of a vacation trip for Mr. and Mrs. George Popovich Jr., of Crabtree road. With Kippy and Steve they motored to Boston to visit friends then spent a few days in Conn. with the William Gattens, who moved from Foxcroft a year ago.

GILBERT LAKE—Birthdays brought visitors to the home of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Lavis, of Timberlake road, for a recent weekend. A family party was planned for their son, Laurence and his girlfriend, Gloria Stewart who came from Cincinnati to celebrate their birthdays. The Lavis' daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Hofmeister and the three children of Chicago also came to spend the weekend.

GILBERT LAKE—Cool Lake breezes were enjoyed recently by the Robert Leary family, of Carriage road. They vacationed for a week with friends at a resort on Lake Huron.

FOX-CROFT—A three-foot long birthday cake covered with soldiers and Indians was a real eye-catcher at a Bradley Burnett's birthday party last week. Emily, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Burnett celebrated his seventh birthday Aug. 18. The cake covered a good part of the picnic table and the rest was filled with hot dogs, potato chips, pop, candy and ice cream. Guests were Scott Kemsley, Gary Darling, Gary Griffin, Paul Savanick, David Smith, Jim Haden, Jimmy Stanford, Tommy Rankin, Mickey Scherba, John Fodermaier, Kathy Negas and Barbara Burnett.

GILBERT LAKE—Two weeks of Grand Canyon provided vacation fun for the Howard Schweppe, of Carriage road. They traveled west with their son, John and a niece, Joyce. Highlight of the vacation was an overnight trip down into the canyon. They made the trip by mule, and spent the night at a resort lodge before climbing back up the next morning.

GILBERT LAKE—The Maurice Wright family, of P. Valley, have been enjoying northern vacations recently. Mr. and Mrs. Wright spent a week traveling through Michigan. They toured the west coast as far as St. Ignace and returned to the east coast. The Wright's son, Bill, spent last week near Traverse City with the Robert Froelinger family. He was Nancy's guest.

The Wright's daughter, Jean, stayed cool at home with a swimming party. Her guests were Sue Scott, Pam DeCoster, Joe Cunningham, Joe Oros and Paul Engle. The star of the swimming party was Jean's new puppy, MAGGY, a Labrador retriever.

GILBERT LAKE—Coolest news of the summer arrived during the recent heat wave. We talked with Mrs. William Campbell, of Carriage road, and found she had just returned from Iceland. Felt cool just talking about the weather there. She returned to visit her family and friends for the first time in 14 years. She spent seven weeks sightseeing and visiting.

While she stayed real cool in Iceland, her daughters, Kristin and Carol spent the summer in Florida visiting their grandmother.

CHALMERS LAKE—Mr. and Mrs. Brooke Stanford, of Wing Lake road, entertained at dessert coffee recently for Mrs. Stanford's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Nielsen of Traverse City who were celebrating their golden wedding anniversary. Other guests were the Nielsen's three daughters and their families of Grosse Pointe, a son and his family of Grosse Pointe, and another son and his family of California.

Doggone That Dog

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—Pete, the young pup in the foreground, has developed a new sport—and another way to tease neighborhood youngsters. While Linda Scott (in photo), 783 Huppercross, and Ellen O'Hara, 330 Huppercross, were having a roaring game of hopscotch this week, Pete took to darting in front of the jumps. Both girls think the neighborhood boys have taught him blocking techniques for use in approaching fall football games.

WING LAKE—Among the returning vacationers are the James J. Dugan's of Thurber road. With their three children they traveled to Mackinac Island and enjoyed a week at Grand Hotel.

WING LAKE—With camping equipment and sleeping bags two local boys headed north last Friday. Craig Weston, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Weston and Ed Page, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Page, of Franklin road, spent the weekend at Houghton Lake.

WING LAKE—Vacationing in the west recently was Linda Waldron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Waldron, of Franklin road. She spent a month in Salt Lake City visiting relatives.

WING LAKE—Heading for Switzerland soon are the James K. Holdens, of Forman drive. Holden plans to leave Sept. 1 and the rest of the family will follow when he finds a house in Geneva. The Holdens were honored last night at a farewell dinner party given by their neighbors on Forman drive. The group met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Waldron, before going on to Edgewood country club for dinner.

William C. Potter Finishes Cruise With Pacific Fleet

PACIFIC FLEET — Midn. 1/c William C. Potter, son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Potter, 215 Chevrolet road, Bloomfield Township, took part in a month-long indoctrination cruise aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Kearsarge, operating with the Pacific Fleet. The cruise, which ended Aug. 8 included taking part in the First Fleet maneuver Operation Striketh and the Fleet Visit to San Francisco in July.

Most of the midshipmen will return to their respective colleges in the fall while a few will be commissioned officers in the Naval Reserve and begin a tour of active duty in the navy.

Have You Met ...

Newcomers in Foxcroft, Mr. and Mrs. Everett E. Baggerly, of Meadow Way? They arrived in this country just three weeks ago after living on Guam for the past seven years.

Baggerly is with Ford Motor company. They have two sons, Eddie, 3, and Kiley, 1. While they lived on Guam, Baggerly was a stock broker and insurance agent and Mrs. Baggerly operated an oriental gift shop.

Foxcroft newcomers, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Fink, of Woodland Pass? The Finks have been temporarily living in Dearborn and are former residents of Indianapolis.

They have a son, Gregory, 13. Fink is district manager for Westinghouse. He is a graduate of Ohio State where he was affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega.

Both the Finks enjoy golf and Fink's hobby is building model planes and boats.
