

'Makes-Up'; Wins Award

John Hill, 22401 Ramsey Road, Franklin, was among award winners at the banquet Friday, Jan. 24, ending the second division of the High School Journalism Institute at Indiana University.

Dow Richardson, editor of the Kokomo Tribune and immediate past president of the Indiana University Alumni association, was the main speaker.

Two $150 scholarships were awarded to the outstanding students attending the two-week session for printed weekly and bi-weekly papers.

Theta Sigma Phi and Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternities for women and men, provided prizes for the various categories of study.

Attending were 177 pupils from 65 high schools in Indiana, Michigan, Ohio, Wisconsin and Illinois. Hill, who attends Birmingham high school, won second place for make-up of an inside page and third for make-up of a front page in editing class.

Keep Going Strong Until Summer's End

"Concert Under the Stars" at the Fair grounds, a Sunday afternoon outing at Kensington park and an evening of miniature golf will wind up the busy summer schedule of the Young Adults of the Birmingham Y.M.C. as announced by Miss Marion Cannon, chairman.

Thursday, Aug. 6 is the date set for the concert, and the group is asked to meet at the "Y" at 7 p.m. The afternoon at Kensington park is scheduled for Sunday, Aug. 16, meeting at the "Y" at 12:30 p.m. Be sure to bring your swim suits and a picnic lunch unless you want to buy yours at the canteen.

The last event of the month will be an evening of miniature golf on Friday, Aug. 23 at a nearby course. Once again the meeting place is the "Y," and this time at 7:30 p.m. All single men and women between the ages of 20-40 have been cordially invited to join us for fun and fellowship during the month of August. For further information, contact the "Y."

Seventy-five per cent of the freshmen admitted to the Illinois Institute of Technology in Chicago were in the upper quarter of their graduating class.

FOR AND ABOUT TODAY'S YOUTH

'Gee, Wish I Had a Nickel'

Sue Ann Hern, 336 Glengarry, looks wistfully and thirstily beyond cash customer Jim Comiskey, 627 Broadway boulevard, as her brother George pours. George is part-owner of the Hern-Thrasher Refreshment company. Business is booming, George reported. So how about a free glass, George? It's all in the family.

B'ham Girl Named Judge

Christy J. Schad, 623 Bloomfield court, Birmingham was appointed associate justice recently at inauguration ceremonies for Girls Nation, the citizenship training program sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary.

Some 98 high school girls from 47 states, the District of Columbia and the Panama Canal Zone are taking part in the program. The delegates will complete an intensive study of how our national government functions. They will have special briefing sessions by the departments of state and defense, a visit to the White House and addresses from top officials.

Lots of good-natured "kidding" takes place with regard to the ability of some women to make fools of some men. As a matter-of-fact, it seems to me that women make fools of men only when the men lend plenty of assistance to the "project." On the other hand, however, history records the fact that many foolish males have been made men by women. So, men, let's give the ladies due credit for their salvage results.
