

Research Council Plans Far Ahead For October Meet

Meyer L. Prentiss, President, Citizens Research Council of Michigan, and Thomas R. Reid, director and annual meeting chairman, today announced plans for the annual meeting of the Citizens Research Council, Oct. 15 at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club, Bloomfield Hills, Mich. The meeting has been scheduled from 4 to 7 p.m. for the particular convenience of those who will attend from distant points in the state. Research council members and their guests will convene at 4 p.m. for a business session and to hear a prominent Michigan speaker. The formal session will be followed by a social hour, dinner at 6, and adjournment by 7 p.m. The Citizens Research Council is an independent, non-partisan, privately supported research agency which has been devoting its attention to public affairs since its founding in 1916. The purpose of the Research Council is to promote more efficient, economical, and responsible government.

Hubert V. Davis Serves on Panel At Bowdoin College

Hubert V. Davis of 16 Faculty Row, Bloomfield Hills was a member of a panel which earlier this week discussed the report of the commission on mathematics of the college entrance examination board as part of a six-week summer institute at Bowdoin College.

69 American mathematics teachers studying at Bowdoin this summer under a grant from the national science foundation. In all, approximately 200 teachers from 27 states and four foreign countries are at Bowdoin attending institutes in biology, chemistry, and physics as well as in mathematics. These institutes began on June 29 and will continue until August 8. Offering graduate credit, they are made possible by four grants to Bowdoin, totaling $175,000, from the national science foundation.
