

Lions

Conference race, figure to provide the Lions the toughest kind of opening game opposition.

Boostered by the addition of O. H. Mason to the club that already included such standouts as Jon Arnett, Billy Wade, Tom Wilson, Del

Shofner and others, the men of Sid Gillman are probably the most explosive team in the league.

End of soap box speech.

SPORTSHORTS: Competition in the tennis tournament is getting real stiff . . . of all the defending champions, there is only one possibility for a repeat performance.

Anne Holmes and Barbara Latham may win the women's doubles title . . . and we say may win because all the others have been eliminated.

THUS FAR, new champions have been crowned in the boys doubles, women's singles and new champions will be decided in the other divisions before Friday night . . . And has anyone noticed the turnout for the Little League district playoffs being held at Eton park? Teams from Fenton, Walled Lake, Novi and Farmington have been drawing crowds that have filled the bleachers to overflowing . . . and the home town rooters don't have enough space to even see the games.

A Bad Throw

Pioneer firstbaseman Larry DuCharme took off after the ball as soon as he saw it was going wide, but it didn't prevent Don Beckerman, of the Northwest Detroit team from moving to second base in Tuesday's game. The Pioneer, however, overcame the error and went on to win the District championship on Sunday.

Wall and Gene Littler, each with four tournament triumphs; Bill Casper, the U. S. Open King; Mike Souchak, the Western Open monarch; Ken Venturi, winner of the Chicago and Los Angeles Opens; Arnold Palmer, who has captured the Palm Springs and Oklahoma Opens.

Trying to forecast the likely winner is obviously chancy, since the list includes such great competitors as Doug Ford, Bob Rosburg, Dow Finsterwald, Julius Boros, Jack Burke, Tommy Bolt, Hay and Lionel Hebert, Fred Hawkins, Billy Maxwell, Ted Kroll, Frank Stranahan, Doug Sanders, George Bayer, Don January, Ed Oliver, Dave Ragan Jr., Wally Burkemo and Chick Harbert, the host pro, host of outstanding pros, including
