Dateline Derby

Snow or No, They'll Have A Sleigh Ride

By BRENDA DRUM

Derby's student council is sponsoring its first and biggest dance of the school year, the Christmas dance.

"The Sleigh Ride" will take place Dec. 18, 7:30 'til 10:30 in Derby's cafeteria. Admission is $1.00 per person, and along with each ticket a free piece of cake will be given.

THIS IS Derby's second attempt at having a large dance in the cafeteria. At first the idea was ridiculed by students, but the idea later was considered terrific.

Students will dance to the swinging sounds of Bob Durand and his band. Semi-formal is the dress. That means ties, boys.

Derby's first basketball game will be with Barnum, Dec. 22. The ninth grade will play here and the eighth grade will play at Barnum. Ninth grade team consists of: Forwards—Ben Root, John Slater, Jim Nunnally, John Brown, Bob Smith, Mike Halpin, Terry Henderson; Centers—Fred Post, Dave Sanders, Jack Harvey; Guards—Tom Brooks, John Trautman, Fred Hall, Ken Pool, Mike Davis, Jeff McPartin, Jerry Lohs and Gary Smith.

MRS. McLEAN took her eighth-grade math classes to the Detroit Bank and Trust company last Tuesday. Each year when studying banking, Mrs. McLean takes her classes on the annual field trip.

Mrs. McLean and Mrs. Hubchen are leaving Derby for other commitments. Both teachers will be greatly missed by the faculty and the student body. Miss Chalk and Miss McLinda, former student teachers, will replace them.

Speaking of leaving, all of Derby's student teachers left last Friday for other teaching assignments.

BLOOMFIELD HILLS HIGH

'Hooray for Our Side!' Students Do It Again

Hail to the students of the Bloomfield Hills area. A very encouraging and successful dance was held Saturday, Dec. 5. Over 200 high school people came to BHJH to dance to the music of the Blue Notes. The turnout far overshooted the expected number and proved the interest in the newly founded High Y Club.

but was closely followed by Bruce Billings, who totaled 12 points.

AGAIN ON Friday both teams played. Despite the distance, many BHJHers traveled to Holly, but were slightly disappointed in the double loss.

The varsity, despite a fast moving, accurate 19-point first period, couldn't keep pace and ended up on the short end of a 63-43 score. Maron and Billings remained Bloomfield's high scorers.

Here and there: Attention. Keep Thursday, Dec. 17 open. The annual Christmas concert will be presented in the high school gym and the general public has been definitely invited.

Come and hear the award winning choir and excellently-rated Jills, under the direction of Mr. Clarence Luchtman. Several sections will be offered by the band, under the direction of Mr. Tilden.

OFF THE TRACK, a delightful comedy by Felice Metcalfe, showed the reactions of different people when stranded in a small town after a train wreck.

The play was directed by Mr. Glenn Wooster, head of the speech department, and featured Dave MacFarlane, Wendy Sanderson, Gretchen Kuschwa, Jeff Howard, Ken Semple, Jim Wolfe, Deanna Laughlin, Nadine Genna, Nick Steen, John Colburn, Karen Carter, Bette Blunt, Karen Slade, and Sue Fry. Once again the seniors prove their skill.

Once again the basketball season, has opened and the Barons have answered the call. On Tuesday, Dec. 1, the JV team beat Oak Park's JV. That same evening, our varsity took the floor and handed Oak Park its first defeat of the season. Tom Maron took scoring honors for the night with 13 points.
