SECTION
D

Few of us pass through a year, or even a month, without wistfully or unwittingly burning the feelings of another person—that person friend or mere acquaintance. When such an injury is done, do you later feel a bit regretful, a bit remorseful about it? Do you get a momentary urge to make amends, to erase the memory of that hurt? Then act upon the urge at once! RIGHT is worth doing NOW!

SOCIETY

St. Vincent-Sarah Fisher Home to Benefit from Tea

The Seton guild has added happiness this joyous Christmas time. Mother Seton, for whom the guild has been named, is nearing the proclamation of her sainthood.

Faye Baldwin, Victor Manning, Joseph Noehren, Hellmuth Hicken, Edward Dooley, Richard Mrowczynski.

Mrs. Faye J. Baldwin, president of the Seton guild, has a special way of knowing the secret desires of each child. . . these will be fulfilled by the proceeds from the tea on Dec. 15 from 2 until 5 p.m. at Labour Hall on 12 Mile and Inkster roads.

MRS. JOHN Malpeti, Jr., is chairman and her co-chairman is Mrs. Louis Deziel. Assisting will be Mesdames Russell LaPlante,

Have You Met . . .

The residents of 2029 W. Lincoln? Mr. and Mrs. George H. Marshall moved from Highland Park on Sept. 12. He is employed by Parke-Davis Co., as manager of the show, gifts, rosettes and Mrs. Norman Berry, blue rosette.

'The Angels Sing' At Christmas Show

Angels suspending from a blue sky and evergreen trees specked with snow was the setting for the Birmingham branch of the Woman's national farm and garden association's 22nd annual Christmas show last week at the Community house.

Arrangements displayed included decorations for doorways, entrance halls, fireplaces, mantels and table settings for children, family dinners or buffets.

A BLUE RIBBON was received by Mrs. George A. Dixon for her hall decor which featured blue styrofoam balls adorned with sequins accenting a backing of evergreen in the shape of a miniature Christmas tree.

Special award winners receiving three or more blue ribbons were Mrs. D. A. Shardlow, highest number of points for blue ribbons; Mrs. Herbert Carr, chairman of the show, gifts, rosettes and Mrs. Norman Berry, blue rosette.

The list continues with Mesdames Russell Olin, who received the highest points for any one arrangement in the show; Harold Chapel, George Limp, Carman Adams, J. L. Gaitley, Wilmer Hope, Charles Davison, Harvey Bushnell, C. E. Nickel, Elmer Rosenberg, Jack Lawrence, Alvin Knorr and K. A. Berridge.

Mrs. Matthew Cammareri was responsible for all the stage setting and Mrs. Victor Brink was in charge of the outside door decorations.

Mrs. Marvin Katke, who made a group of wreaths for under the balcony window, was among those to receive the most blue ribbons.

Three Flags chapter DAR will meet at 12:30 Monday for a luncheon and Christmas party at the home of Mrs. E. J. Gross, 3806 W. Lincoln, Birmingham. Contestees will be Mesdames William Averson and Carl Bush.

The delegates to the state conference which will be in March in Flint and to the Continental congress in April at Washington will be chosen at the regular business meeting. Mrs. Harry Alger, social chairman, has planned a program of Christmas music with an exchange of gifts.

National Park college alumnae association's annual Christmas party and luncheon will be today at the home of Mrs. Shirley George, 828 Berkshire, Grosse Pointe. Mrs. Earl Goyeau of Abbey lane, Birmingham, will award the holiday bouquet.

Funds raised from the project will go to the Children's hospital of Detroit. Birmingham area members planning to attend are Mesdames Charles Mombreg, Len Bertling, James Robertson and Harold I. Tanner.

Hayride Coming Up

Young adults, both men and women, between the ages of 18 and 35, are invited to join the young adult club of Central branch YWCA on a hayride tomorrow evening at 7. The group will go to the Friendly Acres ranch in Livonia for an hour's hayride and dancing to follow.

Program Presented At Country Day

The Wayne State university symphony musicale presented a program last week at Detroit Country Day school with Valtor Poole conducting. A reception followed.
