

Little boys and girls (especially boys) are known to be quite unruly about the house... scattering toys may be excusable at the toy age, but how about finding their clothes tossed loosely about their rooms when they become old enough to "know better"? Gradually, little folks need to be taught the values of "law and order."

SOCIETY

Working on Concert

Dec. 19 is the date when the Yale Glee club will present an 8:30 p.m. concert at Parcels auditorium on 8 Mile road and Mack. Birminghamites working on plans for the evening are (from left) Mrs. Donald Parsons of Sutfield road, Mrs. David Lawrence of Northlawn drive and Mrs. Frederick Bahr of Washington street. The purpose of the concert is to aid the scholarship fund for worthy students. William Y. Gard, a former member of the glee club, is chairman of the evening and Mrs. David Lawrence of Northlawn drive, is heading the Birmingham area. Director of the glee club is Fenno F. Heath. Yale alumni will gather at the Little club for their annual dance following the concert. Jack Qualey's orchestra will provide the music.

Girl Scouts Take Trip To Lansing

Two intermediate girl scout troops from Holy Name school had a double-busled lesson in citizenship Tuesday. They took a French and an Italian girl with them on an all day bus and station wagon trip to Lansing.

While there they had a guided tour of the capitol, MSU and the state police headquarters. Some of the older girls are working on the "Citizens Here & Abroad" requirement for their first class badge.

THE FRENCH girl guest, Christine Toullier, has just moved to 572 Harmon with her family. The Italian girl is Alberta Savonuzzi, 1015 N. Woodward. The two mothers who helped on the trip were Mrs. Robert Erickson and Mrs. Richard Ruen.

The sixth grade troop 150 is led by Mrs. Sidney W. Smith, Jr. and Mrs. Angus M. Latimer. Fifth grade troop 272 is led by Mrs. E. C. Walter and Mrs. Eric Weinman.

Scouts who made the trip to Lansing were Helen Close, Jody Cronin, Debbie Egeon, Kitty Heinen, Robin Kuebler, Pat Latimer, Bev Lawson, Mary Leahy, Mickey Mathews, Susan MacLellan, Mary McDaniel, Erin McKenna, Janet Foscoody, Chris Savage, Rachael Smith, Sarah Smith, Julie Tata, Pat Sullivan, Susan Williams.

Bloomfield Home Setting for Meet

Mrs. Harvey Bumgardner of East Long Lake road will entertain group I of Alpha Sigma Alpha with daughters as special guests at a 12:30 p.m. luncheon on Dec. 19. Mrs. William Gostin will assist.

In an atmosphere of pre-holiday decor, the huge tree in the family room weighted with Christmas toys, traditional of the various European countries to which the Bumgardners have traveled, a program of Christmas music will be presented by soloists, Mrs. Norman Sanborne of Pilgrim road and Mrs. William Buchinger of Grosse Pointe.

As a conclusion to the afternoon's entertainment, Louise McArthur will show slides of her recent trip to Hawaii.

Birmingham MOMS' Christmas Party

The Birmingham MOMS are entertaining 20 children from the Oakland county children's home with a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Lee Mohr, 5125 Kensington road, Monday at 1:30 p.m. Santa Claus will be played by Mrs. A. Watson. Mrs. E. J. Kempf will tell Christmas stories and Mr. Wilson of the Telephone company will show a Christmas film "The Spirit of Christmas," followed by refreshments, candy canes and popcorn balls.
