Commissioner? Yanich Decision Still Unanswered

TROY—Louis Yanich, Troy city commissioner who sent his resignation to officials recently, is technically still a city commissioner. His colleagues filed his resignation after a tie vote on the topic of acceptance. End result is that Yanich is still a city commissioner of a resignation must be accepted by the commission. According to City Attorney

Plan Neighborhood Renewal in Troy

TROY—An urban renewal plan for a neighborhood at 15 Mile and Livernois was authorized last week by city commissioners. The plan will be submitted to the federal government with a petition for funds, if the council approves the plan drawn by Troy planners.
