

The sense of smell contributes tremendously to the pleasant experiences of life. The perfumes, the scents, that nature creates, not only from her floral offerings, but from the variety of odors that come from earth and water; these also add mightily to this enrichment. Then, of course, the odors that come from the kitchen, when food is being prepared, stimulate the appetite pleasantly.

The Birmingham Eccentric

BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN

Tuesday, December 22, 1959

SECTION
C

Season's Greetings and Best Wishes for the New Year

'... and I wanna doll, ana truck, an' I've been good', comment the children at the St. Vincent-Sarah Fisher Home

ECCENTRIC PHOTO

'Splash, Crash, Gurgle, Clink, Ouch . . . Yum!'

Ummm . . . It Looks Good

It was a busy day at grandmother's house last week when the Houck clan arrived for their annual cookie-making party. Mrs. H. B. Houck of Arlington, Beverly Hills, prepared the dough in advance for the youngsters, furnished the rolling pins and cookie cutters and the youngsters took over. Grandchildren attending were Danny and Tommy Houck of Orchard Lake; David, Stephen and Eric Neef of Gilbert Lake road, and grand-nieces Sally and Carolyn Jungerheld of Saginaw. The children took great pride in the end results, while grandmother Houck found herself cleaning up the mess.

Suburban Scene

By Shirley Adams
Society Editor

'Greetings to All'

I want to extend my warmest wishes for a merry Christmas and a happy New Year to all my friends whom I've had the opportunity to work with in the past year.

Hollifields Entertain

Sixty guests arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar L. Hollifield of Chamberlain drive, Birmingham, Saturday evening for an open house. In a holiday setting, the Hollifields chatted with many of their friends they haven't seen for quite some time. They returned this past summer from Brazil, where they lived for two years.

Attending the yule party were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Moores, Mr. and Mrs. William Bricker, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Manegold, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sewell, Mr. and Mrs. William Shaul, Mr. and Mrs. Carter Chamberlain and Mr. and Mrs. James E. Everett, all from the Birmingham area.

Home from New York City

Rosalie Rue of Villa road, Birmingham, will arrive by plane on Christmas Eve from New York City. She will entertain college friends at home on Christmas day. On Saturday, with her parents, the Sigurd O. Rues, she will go to Cincinnati for a short visit at the home of her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Rue. Rosie is in the executive training program with Lord and Taylor, Fifth Avenue, and will return to New York on Monday.

Yule Spirit at Camp Oakland

Out at Camp Oakland these last bustling days before Christmas holiday spirit developed into a combination of brawn and artistic endeavor. On the business end of saws and hatchets, young gentlemen from the Boys ranch tramped into the woods and cut their own trees, while the young ladies (age 6 to 12) devoted time to planning decorations for the Girls ranch.

Assisting them was Birmingham's local group of Kappa Alpha Theta alumnae, headed by Mrs. Edward Wallich, and tomorrow combined efforts will be on display at a

(See SUBURBAN SCENE, Page 3-C)