First Methodist Church Scene of Ceremony

Nancy Irene Brown and Robert Daniel Wootton were united in marriage Saturday afternoon at the First Methodist church in Birmingham. Dr. Arnold F. Runkel officiated in the presence of 200 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Talmadge Thomas Brown of Bedford road, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Wootton of Detroit.

MRS. ROBERT D. WOOTTON

THE BRIDE appeared in a gown fashioned of delustrated satin designed with a sabrina neckline edged with french beading forming a small leaf pattern. A crushed cummerbund accented the empire waistline. A Juliet cap secured her fingered veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade of white amaranths with stephanotis. Honor attendant was Mrs. Elias Rico Torre of Edwardsville, Ill. Bridesmaids were Elaine Blakely of Detroit, Janet Steveman of Saginaw and Nancy Wootton of Detroit.

THEY WERE dressed alike in turquoise satin gowns featuring draped bodices and skirts forming a bell silhouette. Their cascades consisted of Happiness roses. Elias Rico Torre stood as best man. Ushers were Robert Morrison, James Beachamp, Wayne Scott and William Schmidt. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Brown chose a candlelight brocade sheath with moss green trim. Her corsage was cymidium orchids.

MRS. WOOTTON selected a brown brocade dress with topaz satin cummerbund and draping full skirt. Her flowers were yellow roses.

The newweds will live in Detroit.
