Decisions! Decisions! Decisions!

BEVERLY HILLS—After each of the good cooks brought her most popular dish, the diners who lined up at the buffet table had a problem deciding which to select. Diners were members of the South Berkshire women's association, including (from left) Mrs. Donald Rader, president; Mrs. Leonard Pichocki, vice president; Mrs. Arthur Larson, hospitality chairman, and Mrs. John Long, program chairman. The group held their Yuletide smorgasbord event at Birmingham Community House last week. Mrs. Maurice Weiner, 30600 Lusher, Beverly Hills, spoke on "Shortcuts to Entertaining."

H. E. Lichtwardts Greet Visitors from Oklahoma

CHELSEA—Holiday visitors arrived yesterday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Lichtwardt of North Harsdale. They are Mrs. Lichtwardt's brother and family, the Philip Merrys and their three sons from Tulsa, Okla. They will remain through New Year's eve when the Lichtwardts have planned a late supper party.

Their guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Charles Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Egan, Mr. and Mrs. William Klutke, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walker, Mr. and Mrs. James Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Larch, Mrs. James Henderson of Oakleigh and Mrs. Paul Dicker, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Handren, Dr. and Mrs. Jack Lavy, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Novich and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Flynn.

Mr. and Mrs. Franz Audette of Harsdale have planned a family dinner party for this evening in honor of Audette's father, Claude Audette on his 20th birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burton of Stone-ich will entertain over 100 guests tonight at their Christmas open house.

Wing Lake Couple Entertains Friends

WING LAKE—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stecker of Wing Lake road entertained some 60 friends at cocktails and a buffet supper. The Steckers will be entertaining houseguests over the holiday weekend. Visitors from Connecticut will be Mrs. Stecker's father and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ross A. Fife. Their other houseguest will be Stecker's aunt, Mrs. Charles Dann of Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Pfeiffer of Thurber road entertained members of their canasta club Saturday at their annual Christmas dinner party. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ira Goodfellow, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Harding and Mr. and Mrs. Don Richards.

Returning recently from a west-coast vacation were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gordon of Worthington. They drove to Arizona to spend several days visiting former Bis-Ohio residents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Wolff. Gordon returned home and Mrs. Gordon went on to Texas to visit her family.

Arriving home Friday for the Christmas holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Russell R. Peters of Thurber road. They have been vacationing since October in Saratoga, N.Y.

Busy Times Ahead For B'field Heights Mother, Daughter

BLOOMFIELD HEIGHTS—Mrs. James W. Martin of Lone Pine road entertained 18 members of Highland Park Mothersingers last week at their annual Christmas party. Sunday the Martins and their daughter, Carol, attended a family open house at station WXYZ. Carol is employed at the station.

Carol and Mrs. Martin recently gave a bridal shower for Helen Louise Hughes of Highland Park. She is to be married Dec. 27 and Carol will be her maid of honor. Following the rehearsal dinner on Dec. 26, Carol will entertain members of the wedding party at her home.

Kimballs Celebrate

DEVON BROOK—Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Kimball of Devon Brook have planned two parties for the holiday season. The first of these is to be their annual Christmas eve party, a buffet supper followed by open house. The Kimballs have planned a punch party Dec. 29 to celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary (months, that is).

They Went Caroling

BLOOMFIELD HEIGHTS—A Neighborhood group from Christ Church Cathedral joined with Sunday night to go caroling through the neighborhood. They met at Thomas Schover's home on Goddard court to practice then sang their way to the Forrest Haberte where they stopped for supper.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news—the society editor about them.

Gilbert Lake Residents Host Visiting Relatives

GILBERT LAKE—Entertaining recently at a cocktail party were Mr. and Mrs. Eric Hoagberg of Burnham road. Mrs. Hoagberg's mother, Mrs. Novelle Friedland, arrived recently from California and plans to visit through the holidays. More guests will arrive tomorrow. They are Hoagberg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sven Hoagberg of Connecticut and they will remain through Christmas.

California visitors spent a recent weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Howard McDonald of Timberlake road. They were Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Daley of Michigan, entertained in their honor with a cocktail party on Saturday night.

Preparing for a holiday season are Mr. and Mrs. Donald O'Toole of Timberlake road. They will entertain 14 members of their families on Christmas Eve and Detroit at Christmas dinner.

Edward L. Lapes Hold Party in B'field Village

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Lape of Broadway Blvd. entertained some 30 friends Saturday at cocktails and a buffet supper. Their guests were from Flint, Detroit, Birmingham and the Village.

The Lape's daughter, Jan Elizabeth arrived home Friday night from Lovett Heights college in Colorado. She plans to entertain her former classmates from Cot-vent of the Sacred Heart with a holiday dinner party.

Busy with holiday entertaining are Mr. and Mrs. John P. Hopkins of Roland drive. Last Sunday they
