

Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills Society Notes

News for this column may be phoned to Mrs. Porter between 6 and 9:30 P.M. at MI 4-2880.

With the flurry of December parties getting underway, many a Birmingham family is wondering how it will complete its Christmas and write the traditional Christmas notes.

Last Friday evening members of the Cotillion club had their dance at Bloomfield Hills country club. Chaperoning the party were Mrs. Maynard R. Andrade, Mr. and Mrs. Hanley Dawson Jr., M. and Mrs. Norman J. Fredericks, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Kern, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Yoder.

Home from Culver Military Academy for the Thanksgiving holiday, Frank Andrade, son of the Clark Andrades, attended the Cotillion. Also attending the Cotillion was the Maynard R. Andrade's son, Chris, whose roommate at Culver, Joel Roush, of Cadillac, Mich., came home with him for the holidays. Wednesday evening the Andrades had a party for 30 of their friends.

Twin sons of the Dean Coffins, Fred and Will, home from Western Reserve Academy, where Fred is captain of the basketball team and Will was just elected captain of next year's football team, also attended the Cotillion Friday evening. Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Coffins, Will and Fred took in the matinee performance of "Mary Stuart" at the Cass Theatre.

Also spotted in the audience at that performance were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Tilton.

Other young men home for the holidays who attended the Cotillion were Jim Tomlinson, John McDonough, and Hanley Dawson Jr.

The J. Thomas Martins of Cranbrook road in Bloomfield Hills gave their son, John, a real treat to celebrate his thirteenth birthday. They took John and their other son, Jim, and John's friend, Bob Spinning, to New York for the long Thanksgiving week end. Among their activities were visits to the Empire State building, Rockefeller Center, the Statue of Liberty, a ride on the Staten Island ferry, and other jaunts of interest to boys of that age.

Another birthday was celebrated last week by Mrs. Raymond M. Lyons, whose husband surprised her by inviting some friends over to the North Glenhurst drive home Wednesday evening. Guests were the Junior Anthony M. Menzels, the Gordon L. Walkers, the Dixie C. Thompsons, the Myers B. Catberris, and Mrs. Lyons' sister and brother-in-law, the John C.

Liddies, of Riverside, Ontario.

The Lyonses entertained their bridge club Saturday night. The Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin W. Jayne gave a dinner party for a group of friends at their North Glenhurst drive home. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan W. Greene, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Emerick, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Colombo, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde P. Crane, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Ben D. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Jones, and Mr. and Mrs. Maynard R. Andrade.

Co-hosting a brunch at the Bloomfield Hills country club last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Pryale of Barbour lane and Dr. and Mrs. Howard B. Parker of Martell drive.

Sunday evening the Paul M. McKennedy of Dunstan road entertained 24 couples at a cocktail party followed by a Danish supper. The Godfrey Streingers of Linden road, returned Sunday from a two-week vacation in Delray Beach, Fla.

Tomorrow evening Mr. and Mrs. Norman J. Fredericks of Bloomfield Hills will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. Clyde P. Crane, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Perron for dinner at the DAC for opening night of the Hildegarde show.

Friday evening is the Junior League dinner dance at Bloomfield Hills country club, preceded by several cocktail parties. Mr. and Mrs. Richard B. Wallace of Purcell road and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Craig of Cranbrook road, Bloomfield Hills, are entertaining about 65 couples at the Wallace's before the dance.

Another pre-dance party will be held at the Suffield road home of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Chickering, Jr. Their guests will be the James B. VanDusen, the Richard C. VanDusen, the William J. Beels, the Robert C. Pricks, the James O. Nordlies, the Edward Lawrence, the George H. Lowdens, the Junior W. Edwin Mothers, the Wendover P. Holzworths, and the Robert H. Baxters.

The Chickering's spent Thanksgiving weekend in East Grand Rapids with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Brink, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Kingsley Brown, Jr., of Chesterfield road, are having a few couples in for cocktails before going on to the Junior League dance.

The Browns also entertained last Saturday evening at a dinner party for six couples.

Also inviting some people for cocktails before the dance are the Junior Henry M. Dahlquist of Fairfax road, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Alberts are having a cocktail party at their home on Westwood drive for transfers and their husbands.

Chairman of the dance is Mrs. Richard C. Kern, assisted by the Mesdames William H. Barney, John W. Crim, Kenneth W. Cunningham Jr., Henry M. Dahlquist Jr., Howard H. Fitzgerald, Gordon T. Gatainger, Malcolm R. Lovell, Stephen F. Selby, Wright Tisdale, George T. Trumbull Jr., and Henry Whiting Jr.

Saturday evening the Dean Coffins will entertain a few couples for cocktails before going on to "Le Bal Moderne" at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Their guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Semon Knudsen, Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Williams, and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Newberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Jones are holding open house Sunday from 3 to 8 p.m. for their friends and neighbors to show off their newly remodeled home on Cranbrook road in Bloomfield Hills.

Their former living room has been turned into a formal dining room; and a completely new wing of living room, bedroom and dressing room has been added. Their "stereo" room is outfitted with a projection booth concealed behind a breakfast.

The old part of the house has been turned over to their five children who range in age from 17 years down to five years.

Weekend guests of the Joneses will be Mr. and Mrs. Bradshaw "Bill" of New York city and Madison, Conn., where Mr. Cranford has his studio, and two other couples from New York city—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Foxwell and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Lawrence.

Another Sunday open house will be held from 4 to 7 p.m. by Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Thorp of Dunstan road. They have invited about 75 neighbors and friends to meet Mrs. Thorp's brother and his wife to see "The Taming of the Shrew."
