

3 S'field Delegates

Three Southfield high boys have recently returned from a four day tour of the U.N. and its workings. Sponsored by the Southfield Optimist and Kiwanis clubs, the group will report to their classes, clubs and civic groups on their trip. The boys were John Farris, Ed Duffy and John Gillespie.

Kingswood Column

Their 'Bat' Is in the Gymnasium
By JOAN McDONALD

Ergasterion, Cranbrook School's dramatic club, presents its full play, The Bat, Friday and Saturday evenings, Dec. 4 and 5. The melodramatic mystery is under the direction of Temple Licklider.

Taking the male leads in the production are Lanny Howe as Anderson, the detective; Keith Davidson as Brooks; Fred Roth and Tim Morgan as two socialites, Reginald Beesford and Richard Fleming; Louis Beer as Doctor Wells, a country physician; Tom Hingle as the Unknown Man; and Dave Koether as Billy, the Japanese butler.

GIVING female assistance are Abby Goldstein as Cornelia Van Corder, an elderly maiden lady; Jane Emigan as Lizza, the maid; and Carol Klenke as Dale Ogden, the sweetheart of Brooks.

The play will be in the Cranbrook gymnasium where tickets will be available for eighty-five cents each.

Students drifted through the halls Monday morning with holiday spirit still high. With the Thanksgiving holidays over, Christmas seems right around the corner, as indeed it is, for there are only two weeks left until that red letter day, Dec. 16, which every one at Kingswood waits for.

In the meantime there is much to be done. This week end the Ergasterion play, as noted, will be presented. In the following week the sophomores give their dance, the combined Kingswood and Cranbrook glee clubs present Handel's "Messiah" and many girls will attend the stage play "J. B." in Detroit.

Seniors Might Be On the Ball, But They're Off Track

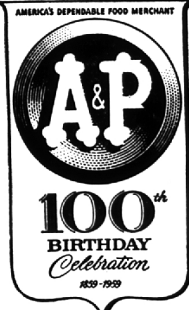

The annual Senior Play is being presented Thursday, Dec. 3, at Bloomfield Hills high school. "Off the Track," a delightful American comedy, starts at 8:15, and the public is cordially invited. For those who can't make it tonight, the same play will again be presented tomorrow, also at the high school.

In the works this week is a Christmas concert to be held Thursday, Dec. 17 at the high school.

Featured will be the Hills-nine BHS girls with a great deal of singing talent; the school band, directed by Mr. Tilden; the choir, ranked very high in quality in Michigan—directed by Mr. Luchtman; and a section presented by the language department, including Christmas songs of many lands. The public has been invited.
