

To most of us, each day passes with its assortment of mostly little trials and tribulations; so many, albeit necessary, routines. On the job, or away from it, with our family or among friends... so much of our time is spent in repetitious matters. We too often are unmindful of life's best values. Suppose... just suppose that one's tomorrow fails to come, would we live more deeply today?

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lopez Honeymooning in Hawaii
