'Meet the Artist' Reception Arranged by Local Leaders

Crowded calendars of Mrs. Daniel Siegel and Mrs. Joseph Kukes keeping them busy with their various charitable and community activities, social functions and family affairs, does not deter them from extending their interests to the world of art and artists.

Their special attention at this time is commanded by preparations for the anticipated visit of the renowned artist, William S. Schwartz, of Chicago, for the showing of his latest works at the Anna L. Werbo galleries of Laverne, commencing Sunday for two weeks.

MRS. SIEGEL and Mrs. Kukes with Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm C. Sweeney of Pine Lake road are arranging the "Meet the Artist" reception at the galleries from 3 to 11 p.m.

Mr. Schwartz is well known locally though his last visit here was about a decade ago. He has been painting for more than 20 years. Among his many national awards, he was recognized here with the first Albert Kahn prize, the Temple Beth El Sisterhood first prize and the Seabrook club H.M.
