

B'field Hills Ham Operator Meets Puerto Rican 'Voice'

WING LAKE—When you are a ham road operator like Bill Springer, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Springer of Franklin road, you make many friends in far away places but only know them by their voices.

Recently Bill met one of his "voice" friends in person when he arrived in the U. S. to attend school in Grand Rapids. Silo (Pancho) Rodriguez of Puerto Rico came to meet Bill and spend a day with him attending classes at Bloomfield Hills Junior high school.

Returning last week after six weeks in Europe were Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rumsey of Wing Lake road. They flew to Paris and rented a car then drove leisurely through the champagne country of France and on to Belgium and Germany then back to Fontvarin country and on to Switzerland. Unable to negotiate a difficult pass they put the car on a train and met it in Milan to continue their drive. They stopped in Monaco and enjoyed several leisurely days in resort country near Nice before stops in Spain and Madrid. Then back to France and a tour of Chateau country and finally Paris again. From here they flew to London and spent several days visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Clough who formerly lived in Birmingham. In London they also visited Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Harrison who recently moved from Birmingham.

Houseguests of the Rumseys over Thanksgiving weekend were several of Rumsey's relatives from Hamilton, Ontario and Buffalo, N. Y.

Houseguests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert V. Gray of Thurber road are Gray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glen L. Gray of Iowa. They arrived the weekend before Thanksgiving and plan to remain this week.

Foxcroft WNFGA to Hold Dec. 7 Christmas Workshop

FOX-CROFT—With the arrival of December and the Christmas season members of the Foxcroft WNFGA will soon be in a holiday mood as they participate in many Christmas parties. The Dec. 7 meeting at the Franklin Community church will be a "sparkling surprise" for members.

Mr. Robert Thom, chairman of the greens workshop, and her committee have been working for months gathering ideas and materials for Christmas decorations.

Everything needed for holiday decorating will be available at the Greens Workshop Dec. 16 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Franklin Community church.

Assisting Mrs. Thom are Mrs. R. W. Berndt, Mrs. J. W. Wolfson, Mrs. A. A. Alvogant, Mrs. J. H. Bennett, Mrs. P. A. Billings, Mrs. Bruce Benway, Mrs. P. C. Bloom, Mrs. E. J. Dore, Jr., Mrs. F. E. Fleming, Mrs. E. E. Kramer, Mrs. D. F. Lay, Mrs. H. D. MacGregor.

Have You Met . . .

The Carl Widneys of Birmingham, newcomers to W. Orchard Hill drive? They have two children, Charles Loud, 11, and Deborah, 8, attending Harlan school. Widney is a representative for Coant Furniture Co. The family enjoys golf, swimming and ice skating.

Hazel Dunlop to Talk At Joint Meeting Of Garden Clubs

BLOOMFIELD NORTH—Hazel Peckinpugh Dunlop, author and lecturer will speak Dec. 7 at the Showcase to the Combined membership of Wing Lake Shores, Thornholt Farms and Westwood Manor WNFGA branches.

Presented by the J. L. Hudson Co. Spawker's Bureau, Mrs. Dunlop's topic will be "Holiday Decorations."

Mrs. Dunlop studied art, music and horticulture in public and private schools in her home state of Indiana.

She is the author of the book "Let's Arrange Flowers" and a new one "Flower Arranging For Fun." She has written numerous magazine articles and has staged special flower shows.

Gallaudet Entertain At Surprise Brunch

GILBERT LAKE—A recent weekend guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gallaudet of Shadow Lane was John W. Edgerton of New York. The Gallaudets and Mr. and Mrs. James P. Cumiskey, Jr., of Birmingham gave a surprise brunch party Sunday at the Gallaudet home honoring Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Weed of Franklin on their 20th wedding anniversary.

Weekend visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald of Shadow Lane was their son, Walter, who arrived Thanksgiving morning from Williams College, Massachusetts. The McDonald's other son, Jay, invited a fellow student from Cranbrook for Thanksgiving dinner.

Mrs. Robert Eoff, Jr. and her son and daughter, Robert and Marcia, of East Millerway traveled to Lansing recently to attend the senior recital of Mrs. Eoff's niece, Karen Olson Mitchell, soprano. Mrs. Mitchell, a resident of Birmingham, sang in Italian, German, French, Greek and English. The Eoffs attended a reception in her honor following the recital.

The Robert Eoffs of East Millerway were hosts on Thanksgiving day to some 25 members of the Orchard Bunch. Their guests came from Traverse City, Petersburg, Detroit, South Lyon and Berkley.

This was a good hunting year for the David Sinton family of Orchard Bunch. They took their sons, David and Mike, to Tawna for 10 days of hunting with Stan and Mrs. sister and family. Mr. and Mrs. sister and family. Mr. and Mrs. sister and family.

B'field Village Woman Returns From California

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—Flying home last week after a short trip to California to attend the wedding of her niece was Mrs. Arthur Bull of Broadway drive. Mrs. Bull's niece, Priscilla Prine, formerly lived in Birmingham and attended the Quanton school. She was married in San Marino on Nov. 19 to Philip Thatcher.

Mrs. Bull stayed with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold King of Arcadia. The Kings are former Birmingham residents.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Wollering of Yarmouth traveled to Chicago to spend Thanksgiving with friends. They returned home Sunday.

Thanksgiving dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Dykstra included Mrs. Dykstra's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Stele and their two children of Magnolia.

Lochslea Residents Entertain Guests During Holiday

LOCHSLEA—Thanksgiving day brought many weekend guests to Lochslea homes. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Binger of Kinway drive entertained relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Don Kales of College Park, Md. The Binger's son, Bill was home from Eastern Michigan college and their daughter, Sally joined them for Thanksgiving dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Murphy of Blossom Lane had fun with their three small grandchildren who came with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Follett, from Easton, Pa.

There was a family gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Lewis of Blossom Lane. They entertained more than 20 dinner guests from Grosse Pointe and Mrs. Warren Packard of Rutherford drive. A weekend visitor at the beautiful home was Gerry Brinks of New York.
