St. James Church Scene of Ceremony

St. James Episcopal church was the scene Monday evening for the marriage of Penny Sears and Wayne Appleman. The Rev. A. Fletcher Plant performed the 8:30 o'clock ceremony in the presence of 200 guests.

The bride, daughter of Wilbur A. Sears of Buckingham road, Birmingham, and the late Mrs. Sears, appeared in a full length gown of silk tulle featuring a scalloped neckline, short sleeves and full skirt. A pearl crown secured her finger-tip veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of tea roses and peonies.

HONOR ATTENDANT was Shirley Eckert of Dayton, Ohio. Bridesmaids were Carole Appleman of Anaheim, Calif., Elizabeth Amick of Delaware, Ohio, and Carol Goodspeed of Ferndale.

Attendants were gownned in aqua silk organza over tulle skirts with short sleeves and full skirts. They carried off-white tea roses with pink tea roses.

THE GROOM, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur R. Appleman of Anaheim, Calif., asked Thomas Hughes to be best man. Ushers were Robert Schwinn of Centerville, Ohio, Lee Sears and Rollin Morrison.

The bride's aunt, Mrs. Charlton J. Walker wore a rose blue dress with matching accessories and pink cymbidium orchids.

Mother of the groom selected a

MRS. WAYNE APPLEMAN brown organza over tulle full length gown with matching accessories and light brown cymbidium orchids.

THE NEWLYWEDS will reside in Columbus, Ohio, where Mr. Appleman is attending law school at Ohio State university.

and a Happy New Year'. One of the best ways to insure having a happy new year is to have a neighborhood New Year's Eve party, as the Carl J. Holdens of Larchlea are doing. Guests at the pot luck supper will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Henne, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Bates, all of Larchlea, and Mr. and Mrs. George A. Goddard of Wimbleton road.

Entertaining a traditional New Year's Eve group for the evening and a midnight supper will be the John R. Davies of Lakeside road.

Mr. and Mrs. C. William McConnell Jr. of Winch are also entertaining New Year's Eve at a potluck supper. Guests, most of whom are members of a monthly bridge club, will be Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Comb Jr., Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Wirth, and Mrs. Paul Hollings.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Limbacher of Brookwood court.

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Andreae of Ridgewood are spending a quiet New Year's Eve at home with Mr. and Mrs. L. Raymond Twyman of Bloomfield Hills. Their guests, coming from Grosse Pointe for the evening and to spend the night at the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club, are Mr. and Mrs. Tompkins.

Many activities in the Andreae household center around the children: daughter Karen, home for the holidays from the Milwaukee Ridgewood road are spending a quiet New Year's Eve at home with Mr. and Mrs. L. Raymond Twyman of Bloomfield Hills. Their guests, coming from Grosse Pointe for the evening and to spend the night at the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club, are Mr. and Mrs. Tompkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel A. Packard had an open house for 50 couples as a house-warming for their new apartment at 521 Bloomfield court. Their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Barker Jr. and their children Daniel and Richard who had come from Midland for Christmas, stayed on for the party. Other out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Coward of New York City, who will remain here until Jan. 2.

Also on Sunday the C. Haddell Smiths of Oak street entertained some friends for cocktails and supper. Guests were the E. S. Janosa, the George Dixons, the Mr. Carl Laymans, the Lawton Tabors, and the Jerome Benjamins—all from this area, and the John Shaws of Ann Arbor and the Ernest L. Bridges of Detroit.

On Sunday, Dec. 20, the Smiths were co-hosts with Carl Sitta, also of Oak street, in honor of Miss Gerdi Elizabeth Kyberg of Stockholm, Sweden, the fiancée of the Smith's son, Kent. The couple announced their engagement last September in Stockholm.

The Smith's daughter Julie, home from Rollins college, joined in the festivities.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. David Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Trees and Peter Reese, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Keene, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Charlton, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Keil, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith—all neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman J. Fredericks of Lakeside, Bloomfield Hills are having a busy time this holiday season. Daughter Lois is home from the University of New York City. Kathy Miller of St. Louis, her roommate, has been staying with her for four days Saturday night the two girls went to the debut party of Lynn Terne at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. Brother Norman Jr., home from Georgetown University for the holidays, escorted Ronnie Gibbons of Atlantic City, N.J., to the debut party.
