Area Men Promoted At Detroit Controls

Two Birmingham area residents and another from Franklin have been named vice presidents of Detroit Controls division of American-Standard. F. J. Kreissl, division president, has announced.

They include John R. Warnock, 5135 Old Court road, W. Bloomfield township, general manager of marketing; Richard L. Campbell, 839 Randall court, Birmingham, director of engineering; and George F. Butterfield, 25645 Carol, Franklin, general manager of manufacturing.

Local Men Named to JA Committee

At a special luncheon meeting held at the Detroit Athletic club, Paul H. Carnahan, Great Lakes Steel board chairman and general chairman of the 1960 Junior Achievement Week in southeastern Michigan announced plans of the JA organization for its week long national observance from January 31 through February 6.

Gathered at the DAC were representatives of Detroit newspapers and radio and television stations besides top business executives, all of whom have consented to serve on one of the special committees (advertising, radio and television) to help publicize the organization during JA Week.

CAMPBELL began with American-Standard in 1925. He was appointed director of engineering in January, 1959. Butterfield was superintendent of American-Standard's Columbus plant of the Detroit-based Industrial Division before joining Detroit Controls in December, 1958. He is general manager of manufacturing.

Name Whiting Vice-President At Ad Agency

William J. Whiting, 2725 Charnwood, Bloomfield Hills, has joined McCann-Erickson, Inc. as director of creative services. Detroit office, it has been announced by T. Jack Henry, vice president and Detroit manager of the advertising agency.

Ford Engineers Address ASAE

Three Birmingham experts in the field of agricultural engineering presented papers that were presented in Chicago before the 1959 winter meeting of the American Society of Agricultural Engineers in the Palmer House, December 16-18.

The three participants are Harold A. Lebmann, supervisor, hydraulic section, Tractor and Implement division, Ford Motor Co. His subject was "Hydraulic Relief Valve Problems and Designs"; M. Lynne Geisler, 1241 Bowers, Birmingham, is a research engineer. His subject was "Value of Differential Locks on Farm Tractors"; and Archie C. Quinn, 2739 Goldingale, Lathrop village, manager of the engineering development department, discussed "The Function of the Research and Development Center in My Company."

At Triangle

The appointment of Barrett S. Wayburn, 27 of 170 Hammond court, Bloomfield Hills, as vice president in charge of the contract division was announced today by the Triangle Furniture company. Wayburn will aid in merchandising and sales promotion, among other administrative duties. The new vice president is a graduate of Dondero high school in Royal Oak and the University of Michigan, where he received his bachelor of business administration and law degrees.

MacMahon Elected V-P of MSA Group

Charles H. MacMahon, Jr., 3248 Woodside court, Bloomfield Hills, was elected first vice president of the Michigan Society of Architects at the annual board meeting held recently in Detroit. He is with Tarrapata & MacMahon, Architects.

B'ham Area Men Elected to AICPA

James E. Wallin, 1250 Wakefield, Birmingham, has been cited for his outstanding performance during 1959 by Lederle Laboratories division, American Cyanamid company. As a district manager for Lederle, he supervises men who provide physicians with technical information on new drugs. He recently attended a national meeting in Florida where company officials presented him with a special award.
