Relatives Charter Bus For Beverly Gathering

BEVERLY HILLS—Out-of-town relatives of the William H. Brewster of Riverside drive are "smart" people. They refused to buck holiday traffic or to be subject to the whims of old man winter; they took that well-known advertising suggestion, "Ride the bus; and leave the driving to us."

Last Saturday, they all gathered in Flint and rode a chartered bus down to the Brewsters home for a family gathering.

On the bus were Brewster's mother, Mrs. W. J. Brewer; Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Pryce, daughter Ann and son Bob; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sackrider and Mrs. and Mrs. Donald Sackrider all of Flint; Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Sackrider and daughter Sandra of Swartz Creek, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sackrider and daughter Martha of Caro, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sackrider and their daughter and son-in-law, the Lewis deans, of Grand Blanc; and Mr. and Mrs. Howard McIntosh of Cleveland.

The Brewer children, John, Sharon and Barbara, completed the family group. John occupied the extra seat on the bus on their return trip to Flint.

Dick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. McNulty of Waltham road, is home for a two-week respite from army duty at the Redstone Arsenal in Huntsville, Ala.

Bill, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gilbert of Weston, is home on a two-week holiday furlough from his army post at Ft. Hood, Tex.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald W. Ballantine of Rosewood announce the arrival of a daughter, Deborah Ellen, born Dec. 21. They have two other children, Carolyn and Philip.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Seest of Leasport announce the birth of a daughter, Carol Ann, Dec. 2. They have two other children, Paul and Jeff.

Beverly Artesian Contest Winners Announced

BEVERLY HILLS—Results of the Beverly Artesian home Christmas decoration contest were announced following the judging Dec. 27.

Arthur Pulte, president of the Oakland Hills association and Robert Cairns, head of Beverly Manor association, selected three winners and four honorable mentions.

A hon, a ship and a slide featured the trip of the Judson F. Phelps of San Francisco, house guests of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Simpson of Arlington. The Phelps, former neighbors on Arlington, flew to Chicago where their plane was grounded by fog and they completed the journey by train.

In their honor, Mrs. H. B. Houck of Arlington will entertain a New Year's eve party with guests the Elias Heicks, the James and Frank Risak, 31279 East Rut-Guilbergs, William Simpsons, and

'Spy Warfare Today' Topic Of Woman's Club Speaker

LATHRUP—An inside view of the cloak and dagger business has been promised for Lathrup woman's club members at 1:30 Jan. 4 in the House-in-the-Woods.

Speaker Dan F. Moore will tell of his adventures as former chief of Counter Intelligence of the Middle East. He has recently returned from an extended tour of that area as a foreign correspondent.

In 1957 Moore received the PAPA award from the International Platform association as the best adventure speaker of the year. Moore's talk Monday will be on "Spy Warfare Today."

Mrs. Robert E. Whiting will hostess a tea following the meeting. She will be assisted by Mrs. Thomas Adams, Mrs. Howard Humphrey, Mrs. Oscar Scharjian, Mrs. Robert Duncan and Mrs. Richard Whiting.

Cranbrook—When John and Peg Williamson and son John Davis of 27428 Spring Arbor leave for Van Nuys, Calif., to take up permanent residence there, they will be leaving behind a lot of friends who will miss them.

S. Berkshire Group To Print Cookbook

SOUTH BERKSHIRES—The South Berkshire women's association held their board meeting Dec. 16 at the home of Mrs. William Harrison, Sr. on Vernon drive. Plans were set for the February dinner-dance and other special programs.

The smorgasbord dinner recently given by the association has prompted the association to publish a recipe book containing all dishes served. The book will also contain hints on relaxed entertaining, the entertaining of unexpected guests and party short cuts.

Mrs. Dorothy J. Weiner of Lathrup road will compile and edit the recipe book which will be the association's 1960 money-making project.

RALPH A. WILSON
Counselor

Dear Friends:

At this season each year, our thoughts turn invariably to family, friends, and the many pleasant contacts we have had during the past year. It is most gratifying to all of us, here at the Wilson Drug Company, for the confidence and loyalty that has been shown us throughout the years.

Above all else, we value the goodwill and friendship of our customers and all the people of the greater Birmingham area.

Therefore, the entire staff, here at Wilson's, join in wishing all our many friends and neighbors a most joyous and prosperous New Year.

Sincerely,
Richard J. Wilson
