Coral Reef Exhibit

James Carmel, chief preparator at Cranbrook Institute of Science, works on the coral reef exhibit which will be unveiled on Members' Night, Feb. 20, at 8 p.m. The open house for Institute members will signalize the completion of the coral reef exhibit and a new exhibition on star stones and cat's-eyes. Carmel began the reef exhibit in 1956 when he went to Nassau. The colored fisty in the exhibit were cast in beesewax from models made by him in the field. A color film, "Secrets of the Reef," will run continuously on Members' Night. An exhibition of photographs taken in Sarawak by Hedda Morrison will also be on display.
