- TB X-Rays
• Eyeglass Cleaners
• "Doctor" or "Mister"

Q. If x-rays are harmful, why are people who are perfectly well urged to have chest x-ray examinations for tuberculosis?
A. Because benefits of properly conducted chest x-ray programs far outweigh possible harm. This was the conclusion of a special investigative committee appointed by the Ontario (Canada) Tuberculosis Association. The National Tuberculosis Association and American and State Tuberculosis Societies support this view.

Q. What is the best way to clean glasses?
A. Soap and water is excellent, provided a mild hand soap is used. Finger soaps might affect the frames used on some glasses. Several good cleaning fluids for glasses are available through optical stores. These contain a mild alcohol solution which takes off most spots. Silicone-treated papers are satisfactory for use except on lenses that have non-reflective coatings.

Q. I have heard that doctors are called "mister" in England. Is this true?
A. Yes. In England a good many surgeons lack the title of Doctor and even physicians may not have it. When an Englishman is ill he consults a doctor, as we do. But a surgeon is usually called "Mister" and prefers to be so called, although he may have M.D. after his name. An English dentist or veterinarian or chemist, however, is seldom called "Doctor" even though they may have the degree or status of doctor.

Answers do not necessarily reflect the opinions of all doctors. The diagnosis and treatment of disease is the province of the patient's personal physician. Questions directed to Science Today, P.O. Box 900, Madison St., St. N. P., Ill., N.Y.

a new homemaker speaks . . .

"I found out in a hurry why Gas Clothes Dryers are so popular!"

Mrs. Patricia Hawley
2518 W. Willow Lansing, Mich.

"Keeping a home in order is no easy job. I'd heard what a help a Gas Dryer could be and now I can see why. I can dry my wash in hardly no time at all and be free to do other things. Clothes are dried so nice that ironing is made easy, too."

Old-fashioned ways of doing things are not for smart new homemakers like Mrs. Hawley. When it takes five seconds to put clothes in a Gas Dryer, why spend hours doing lifting, hauling, hanging and taking down? The convenience of a modern Gas Clothes Dryer makes good sense . . . especially the way it fits so nicely into the budget.
