SOCIETY

Choral Group to Appear in Oak Park

Oak Park high school auditorium will be the setting for a concert by the Roger Wagner Choral at 8:15 p.m. February 19. The concert will be sponsored by the South Oakland community concert association.

The duo-piano team of Stecher and Horowitz are featured in this year's performances. The Roger Wagner Choral ranges in number from 16 voices to 255 depending on the music to be interpreted.

Benefit Concert

State Singers of MSU will appear in a special benefit concert at the Derby Junior high school auditorium, Feb. 26, at 8:30 p.m. The local concert will be sponsored by the Birmingham Musicals. Tickets are available at Grinnell's in Birmingham, or any member of the Musicals.

Beverly 12's First Dance

Beverly 12 Association, with 100 per cent membership, will have its first annual dinner-dance Feb. 21st at Sylvan Glen Country club. The theme of George Washington's birthday will be used for decorations. Red hatched will serve as name tags and miniature cherry trees will be used as centerpieces. Dancing will be to the music of the Herb Miller Combo and a room will be available for those who desire to play cards. Making decorations (from left) are Mrs. Robert Gibson, chairman, Mrs. Perry Green, Mrs. D. R. McRitchie, Mrs. Charles Felts, Mr. M. P. Spurrell and Mrs. D. A. Brown.

Granville Barkers Entertain Neighbors

Mr. and Mrs. Granville Barker, 931 Brookhollow road, entertained some friends and neighbors at a cocktail party recently.

Guests noted as they enjoyed the buffet table bearing a unique spring flower arrangement in an antique bowl which was surrounded by many colorful and interesting foreign dolls purchased by Mrs. Barker while on a European trip.

Enjoying the party were Mr. and Mrs. James Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dieder, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Schulte, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Now and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Swift.

Others participating in the evening were Mrs. Robert Priester, Mr. and Mrs. John Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stansberry, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. John Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Noel Mohr, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Fish.

Some of the couples left the party to attend the showing of "Born Yesterday" by the Birmingham players and others went to the Kingsley Inn for dinner.

The S. Jane de Chantal guild held their monthly meeting recently in the home of Mrs. Robert Kaufman, 1694 Witherbee road.

President, Mrs. Richard Morrison, reported on the coming events and activities for the group before introducing the guest speaker for the evening, Mr. March from the Michigan Bell Telephone Co., who gave an instructive talk on "You and Your Voice."

Mrs. Marsh used a tape recorder to show the women various type speaking voices and told how they could be corrected and improved. Each member in turn recorded their voice.

Present for the evening were Mrs. Maurice Baumann, Mrs. James Carey, Mrs. Roland Roberts, Mrs. Richard A. Manley, Mrs. Gerald Nancy, Mrs. Robert Oldam, Mrs. Vincent Hayes, Mrs. Thomas Schulte, Mrs. Fred Eckhouse, Mrs. Charles Penninger, Mrs. William Kerns, Mrs. William Taylor and Mrs. Maurice Heardon.

The Suburban Investments club held their Jan. meeting at the Rotunda Inn where they enjoyed a buffet dinner before holding their regular business meeting.

Of primary importance was the election of officers naming Mr. Douglas Watson, president; Mr. Alfred Gurley, vice-president; Mr. Fred Mason, secretary, and Mr. Fred Stralk, treasurer.

Outgoing president, Mr. George Whitehead, addressed the group welcoming the new officers. He outlined for a report by William Taylor dealing with American Motors and their new car field.

Other members present were Charles Penninger, Mrs. Jerry Martindt, Robert Distler, Maurice Baumann and Lawrence Harper.

Mrs. James Sowers, 1594 Witherbee road, entertained her bridge club recently in her home.

Seated at the two tables were Mrs. Charles Penninger, Mrs. Thomas Schulte, Mrs. Thomas Griffith, Mrs. Maurice Irvin, Mrs. Harold Day, Mrs. Vernon Doering and Mr. Howard Ross.

Enjoying two weeks in the sunny south were Mrs. and Mrs. Arnold Thomson, 1031 Norwich road, and Mr. and Mrs. George Koebke, 1501 Witherbee road, who flew to Popano Beach, Fla., to be the houseguests of Mr. Thomson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smart.

While there, the couples took advantage of their weather to swim and bring back lovely tans but most interesting of all was a day of deep sea fishing.

Everyone can use a little exercise was decided by Mrs. William Jacobs, 982 Brookhollow road, when she suggested to a few Triton Manor friends an evening out to bowl. Great interest was shown by the women and within a few days a team was selected.

The women, bowling balls and shoes in hand, met for an evening at the Northwood bowling alley. Enjoying the evening's recreation were Mrs. William Dye, Mrs. Phil Klattworth, Mrs. William Christy, Mrs. William Chew, Mrs. Donald
