

MRS. JOHN KINSEY finds her country kitchen pleasing for many working hours.

Memories of Travels Accent Hobby Wall in Kinsey Kitchen

By ELIZABETH YATES
Staff Correspondent

Two years ago the John Kinseys of Hylane drive decided their unique hobby needed space to expand. They had their knotty pine kitchen enlarged another 12 x 20 feet to include an inside fireplace and outside grill turning the room into an eye appealing country kitchen where much of their time is spent. One wall is done in a beaver board and is the Kinseys' hobby wall.

Secretaries' Class Begins This Evening

Secretaries have been singled out for a course offered at the municipal building of Birmingham sponsored by the University of Michigan-Wayne State University Institute. The course, scheduled to begin today, is designed to increase the skill of secretaries in communications and modern office practices. The classes will meet on six consecutive Thursday evenings. Prof. Alice Schour of Wayne's School of Business Administration will instruct the class. More information can be obtained from Wayne State University's Institute of Labor and Industrial Relations.

SOCIETY

Group Sets Chamber Music Concert for Feb. 25 Afternoon

The newly-formed Birmingham Chamber Music Group will hold its premiere February 25 in Grinnell's auditorium, according to Mrs. Ronald M. Kasperzak, the group's founder.

The concert will feature a flute sonatina by Mark Wessel, Orchard Lake composer. Among those who will perform are Mrs. Kasperzak, Terry Yamasaki, Ruth Killoen, Louise Kutscher, Jean Hohmeyer, Helen Conrad, Marianne Albert, Betty Hansen and Lina Talli. Also appearing in the concert will be the League singing group.

The concert is open to the public. The chamber music group is also scheduling future programs for hospitals and schools, according to Mrs. Kasperzak.

Local musicians and singers interested in joining the group can contact Mrs. Kasperzak for additional information.

Library Program Planned by LWV

The League of Women Voters will hold their regular meeting Monday at the Birmingham Community House. Mrs. Thomas Snelham, president, will open the meeting at 1 p.m. Following the business meeting Mrs. George Talburt, chairman of the library study committee, will conduct a follow-up program answering questions brought up at library units. Local, state and national study ideas will be discussed and the group's decisions will be polled.

Rotary Anns to Meet

Mrs. John Wakevainen, 507 Linden, will be hostess to the Rotary Anns Monday. Luncheon will be served at 1 p.m. by Mrs. Robert Peck, chairman, Mrs. Frank Kurtz, Mrs. Clarence Kraft and Mrs. Adam Ladd. The changing scene in furnishing will be discussed by Valerie Stevens of U. S. Interiors.

Pipe Organ Heard By Music Group

The resonant tones of the recently installed Barton pipe organ were heard by the Birmingham Hammond organ club Wednesday at Cranbrook school, a ditorium. Members were given the opportunity to play the two-manual organ.

Floyd Hunt, who installed the organ, illustrated his talk while playing the organ. Robert Howland and Jack Dommer were guest organists.

The next meeting of the group will be at Grinnell's auditorium March 4. There are still memberships open in the group, according to Jack Porter.
