

THE BILLBOARD

BLOOMFIELD HILLS
HIGH

Saturday evening, the combined chapters of Phi Sigma Tau are presenting "Valentasia," the Bloomfield Hills Valentines dance. With music by the Counts, the dance is $2.50 per couple. . . From all the work that is being done, it should be a very nice dance, indeed.

Unable, it seems, to recapture victory, the Barons were defeated by Holly last Friday, 30-32. Although we lost, there is a somewhat brighter note—Holly is one of the toughest teams in the league, yet there was only a seven-point difference, which is certainly better than the pitiable score the Barons came up with against Oak Park, a much weaker team.

Last Saturday, I was privileged to attend the "Teen-age Press Conference," held by the Boy Scouts for Pat Boone, who spent the weekend in Detroit, but my good fortune is nothing compared to that of Marty Cole—Pat Boone stayed at her house! It was wonderful to see how well she bore up under this gross misfortune as sympathetic female friends wept at her plight—poor girl. . .

Yesterday, Bloomfield Hills was entertained by the precision drill team known as MacArthur's Engineers, from Michigan college of mining and technology at Houghton. The members are all cadets in the ROTC program at the college.

Each year the group tours several of the high schools in our area, and yesterday, Bloomfield Hills high was the recipient, and glad, indeed, for they made a very good showing.
