(This is one of a series of articles on federal income tax filing. The articles are based on information provided by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants in cooperation with the Integral Revenue Service.)

Accommants in congration with the Internal Revenue Service)

You may think that listing your income is the easiest part of preparing a tax return. Actually, according to the Internal Revenue Service, this is where taxpayers make the greatest number of errors.

Not all of the money that may have come to you during 1958 needs to be reported on your tax form. For example, don't report:
