

'An Affair to Remember' Theme of Fashion Show

"An Affair to Remember" was the theme this past week for the Holy Name fashion show at the Oakland Hills country club. Fashions were presented by Klimes - "Franklin Simon" and stressed the spring styles.

Members of the St. Jane de charity guild of Troyton Manor presented were Mrs. Maurice Baumann, Mrs. Charles Penninger, Mrs. Richard Morrison, Mrs. John Ward, Mrs. Howard Ross, Mrs. Robert Oldani, Mrs. Maurice Reardon, Mrs. Clyde Mulhern, Mrs. William Kerns, Mrs. Fred Eckout and Mrs. Vincent Hayes. Mrs. Thomas Schulte was a model for the afternoon.

The decorating committee carried out a color scheme of yellow and white and all women received white carnations with yellow ribbons as table favors aside from the many door prizes.

A Mardi Gras party was recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Jr. for neighbors and friends. The gameroom was decorated to carry out the theme and dancing was enjoyed by the group.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. James Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Granville Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Penninger, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Schulte, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Distler, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Craig and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hooper. Others enjoying the late buffet were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Parke, Jr., Tom Montgomery, Patty Butler, Jim Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reason and Linda Rogers.

An exciting and enlightening trip to Havana, Cuba, was taken recently by Mrs. William Collawn, 926 Norwich road, to join her husband and look for a home since that will be their address for the next few years.

Callawn is with Chrysler as manager of accounting and systems. The company is opening a division of sales and accounting for the South American region.

An evening at the famous Tropicans was one of the highlights of the trip where Mrs. Collawn was given the chance to learn some of fascinating South American dances by the natives.

Before returning to Detroit, the couple visited Collawn's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Collawn in Key West, Fla.

Houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. James Adams, 902 Brooklawn road, were Adams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Adams, Sr. of Louisville, Ky.

A visit to the Shrine circus to see the many animals and planned show was highlight of the trip for Mrs. Adams and 1 year old grand-theme for the evening until 3 hours before arrival time. This year Neigers decided on a Chinese motif. Guests arrived gayly clad as coolies, geisha girls, fishermen and one portrayed Charlie Chan to perfection. All assumed Chinese names for the affair.

Seated around the flat table placed on the floor using authentic chop sticks were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Tegarden, Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Urquhart, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Thomson, Mr. and Mrs. George Roebuck and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Miner.

The gameroom was decorated in the oriental theme with colorful lanterns adorning the ceiling, travel posters hung on the walls and the table decorations carrying out the blue color using blue wall plates.

Spring Blooms at Forest Lake

Despite the wintry weather, a touch of spring was forecast at Forest Lake country club Feb. 11. Hyacinths as table prizes were cheery heralds of the coming season at the well-attended, Valentine luncheon and party.
