Venison Dinner Served At The O. S. Waud's Home

Results of last fall's hunting provided a feast for 24 guests at the O. S. Tilbury road home recently. Venison a la Lauritz Melchior was served at a buffet dinner.

Bringing other gourmet dishes were Mr. and Mrs. George Brush, Dr. and Mrs. Otto Grob, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kyriopoulos, Mr. and Mrs. James Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Little.

Others from this area were Mr. and Mrs. Von D. Polhemus, Mr. and Mrs. George Engoldhard, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schilling, Mr. and Mrs. Anatole Wauters and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Colhaus. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dybdie, who formerly lived on Yarmouth road came from Toledo for the party.

Roger Waud made the Dean's list at Harvard university. A junior, Roger went skiing in Stowe, Vt. during vacation.

An evening of cards was enjoyed at the R. E. Brattons of Wooddale court Saturday night by a group of long time friends.

A heart shaped birthday cake was baked for Mrs. Gil Winn of Bloomfield Hills and Mrs. Roy Sampson of Watkins Lake who were celebrating birthdays.

Besides their husbands, other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Grogyle of Bloomfield Hills and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bird and Mr. and Mrs. William Donaldson of Pontiac.

Jim and Bob Tomlinson, sons of the J. P. Tomlinsons of Burning Bush had a dance for about 50 young folks last Saturday night.

Printed invitations inviting them to a "blast" were received by many seniors from Cranbrook and U of D high school. They were given a demonstration of the newest steps by a couple from Arthur Murray's and served a Valentine buffet afterwards.

Troth Revealed at Valentine Dinner

A Valentine's day dinner was the occasion for Mr. and Mrs. Andrew G. Brodie of Tottenham blvd., Bloomfield village, to announce the engagement of their daughter, Carol Lee, to John F. Spade of Syracuse, New York. John is the son of the Wayne M. Spades of Birmingham.

The bride-to-be attended the University of Colorado. Her fiancé attended Hillsdale college.

The couple are planning a mid-summer wedding.

Soroptomists Show Antiques

If you've been wondering about the actual cash value of that old iron weather vane in the garage—the cherry chest your grandmother's uncle left you—the stained dry sink behind the furnace—you can find out this weekend by loading it into the family car and going down to Ferndale where Soroptomist International is holding its second annual antique show and sale.

The affair will take place in the Ferndale Community building, 400 East Nine Mile road from 11 a.m. through 10 p.m. Friday and Saturday, February 20 and 21.

BIRMINGHAM AREA Soroptomist members who will assist are Mrs. Herman Barth of Oakleaf lane, Southfield township; Mrs. Edith DeAngelis of Bird street, Birmingham; Mrs. Madeleine Doosen of Meadow Way, Foxcroft; and Mrs. William Penney of Beechwood, Westwood.

Birmingham dealers exhibiting at the show will be Loyal Bowers and Spoor's Antiques.

Her parents, the Robert V. Hackets, had a small dinner party in their Wooddale road home Sunday evening to introduce weekend houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Boerman of North Carolina to a few friends.

This Ever Happen To You?

Ever have your car break down on the highway in the dead of night, miles from the nearest town or service station?

If you have, the chances are that it was a truck driver who came to your rescue. For up and down this great State of ours, with its miles upon miles of fine roads, the truck driver has rightfully earned a reputation as the gentleman of the highway.

He is a safe driver—he is a COURTEOUS driver—and he is a CHIVALROUS driver, the man who brings you everything you eat, wear or use.

He stops when others pass you by.
