BUSINESS BRIEFS

Name Trichel As Advisor At Chrysler

G. W. Trichel, 616 Puritan, Birmingham, has been named military advisor to T. F. Morrow, group vice president — defense and special products. Trichel has been president of Chrysler corporation's Amplex division since 1956.

Trichel brings to his new post invaluable experience gained in 13 years at Chrysler and 10 years in the U. S. Army," Morrow said.

At the end of World War II, Trichel was chief ordnance officer for the American forces of the western Pacific.

G. W. TRICHEL

Trichel joined Chrysler in 1946 on the staff of the vice president and general manager.

In 1951, he was appointed a vice president and member of the board of directors of the Fargo division (fleet vehicle sales) of Chrysler corporation.

Trichel was named executive vice president and general manager of Amplex in July, 1954, and promoted to president of Amplex in May, 1956.

Prior to joining the corporation, he spent 30 years of active duty with the U. S. Army, advancing to Colonel in 1942.

Paul Wilson Named Supt. Of Hudson's

Paul E. Wilson, 2362 Windemere, Birmingham, former assistant store superintendent of Hudson's Eastland, has been named superintendent.

He replaces Edward J. Richert, who retired this month after 33 years of service with the company.

PAUL E. WILSON

Wilson came to Hudson's in 1950 from Libby Owens Ford glass company in Toledo as a staff member in the work simplification department. In 1951 he became director of that department and in 1952 was named a staff member of the service operation in charge of merchandise handling coordination.

In 1953 he was promoted to manager of receiving and marking and in 1957 was named assistant store superintendent, Hudson's Eastland.

An engineering graduate of Purdue University, Wilson spent two years in the U. S. Navy during WW II serving in the Pacific aboard an attack transport.
