SOCIETY

Harlan School Pack B34 Gather for Banquet

Cub Scouts, dads and den mothers of the Harlan school pack B-34 gathered at the Community House for their annual Blue and Gold Banquet Feb. 10.

John Eicher of the South Michigan Dog Obedience Training club presented the evening's program. Sixteen members of the club put their dogs through the various routines of heeling, standing, jumping, and retrieving on command with E. Thornton narrating.

The Cubs were enthralled with the performance and eagerly took part in the question and answer period that followed. Awards were given the Cubs completing the memorable evening.

There was excitement in the air as the Cub Scouts of pack B14 lined up with their own hand-carved and painted miniature race cars for the third annual Derby on Saturday in the Eastover school's multi-purpose room.

The race was from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. with the Webelos selling hot dogs, donuts, pop and coffee on the sidelines. An electric eye finish line was added to the long ramp last year and was used again this year. Peter Young won the first place as pack winner.

Calvin Lockin came in second. The winners of the dens were: Jim Brown, den 1, Peter Young, den 2, Russell Slade, den 3, Calvin Lockin, den 4, and Eric, den 5. Carl Ubrion, den 8, David DeWitt, Webelos.

The Blue and gold banquet was at Eastover school on Monday evening, with Cubs, dads and den mothers participating. The winners of the derby, Peter Young and Calvin Lockin were awarded gold miniature race cars mounted on wooden trophies.

The den winners were given engraved wooden plaques. The second annual movie derby was shown.

The David Giefkes of Northover drive entertained at an open house honoring Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Hornung of Birmingham, parents of Mrs. Giefkes, on their 40th wedding anniversary, Sunday, Feb. 8.

A wedding cake centered the buffet supper table. Among the 50 guests extending their best wishes were the Edward Eildons of Bloomfield Hills, the Robert Sarvas and the Edward Hornungs of Birmingham, the Paul Shrocks of Pleasant Ridge and the John Hobens of Grosse Pointe.

A birthday dinner was hosted at the Hamblett Open Hunt club by the David Giefkes and son, Larry, of Northover drive, in honor of Mrs. Earl Goyevaux's birthday Thursday evening.

Guests in the party were Earl Goyevaux and daughter, Luanne, and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hornung of Birmingham.

The Donald Richardsons of Pine Hill drive are spending this week touring New York city. Their plans will include a luncheon and tour of the United Nations building, the subway, Rockefeller Center and visiting the shops. They have tickets for "Music Man" and hope to attend the much talked about play "Flower Drum Song."

Their stay while in New York will be at the Sussex House. A trip to Washington, D. C., to visit the David Nes family, is slated before their return home this weekend.

Dr. and Mrs. George Smith of W. Orchard Hill drive are ski enthusiasts and spend many weekends on the slopes of Northern Michigan. Last weekend was spent at Otsego skiing with their three oldest children, Sharon, John and Steve.

The Arthur Erickson family of Kenton road are home after flying out to Oregon and California. While in Oregon they visited Erickson's brother and family, the Reuben Ericksons in Coos Bay.

Then on to San Francisco where they visited Fishermans Wharf, Chinatown and Alcatraz. Three days were spent in Los Angeles, touring Hollywood movie sets, Knotts Berry Farm and fabulous Disneyland.

The Ericksons are newcomers to Kenton, formerly of Royal Oak. Their four children are Marylou, a graduate of Michigan State and presently in her second year of teaching at Calumet, Mich.; Sandy, 13, a student at Bloomfield Hills Jr. high, Randy, 8, and Anita, 6, attend Eastover. Erickson is owner of Erickson Flooring and Supply in Royal Oak.

The Larry Harris are new residents on E. Long Lake road, formerly of Cleveland and New York. Harris is in advertising with Mel-drum and Fenwick in Birmingham, and until the couple's marriage Dec. 1, Mrs. Harris traveled for the Simplicity Pattern Co. They are interested in fishing, hunting and golf.

Newcomers to Hickory Heights drive are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Richardson of Detroit. Richardson
