

Globe-trotting Relatives Visit Milford Pinkertons

SOUTH BERKSHIRES — Mr. and Mrs. Milford Pinkerton of Corvett drive had as house guests this past week Pinkerton's brother-in-law and sister, Army Chief Warrant Officer James Kelly, his wife Mona and their children Irene, Jean Ann, Tommy and Patricia.

The family lived in Italy for three years and left Monday morning for Kelly's new assignment in Indianapolis, Ind.

Little Grace Judith Mularoni was christened Sunday at St. Bede's Catholic church with Rev. Cyril J. Keating officiating. After the ceremony, her godparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mularoni, hosted a dinner at their Stelmair drive home for the godparents, Paul LaFleur and Raymond Eastin and 15 family members including grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Humbert Mularoni of Franklin and Mr.

Beverly-12 Hears Water, Zone Talks

BEVERLYS — According to the report made at the third and final meeting of the Beverly-12 Association last Monday at the Beverly school, the first annual dinner-dance held last Thursday at Sylvan Glen golf club was a glittering success with 90 in attendance.

On the agenda for the meeting was Dr. Douglas Wood, Westwood councilman, who discussed the progress and reasons for master zoning and the current question of rezoning.

HERMAN DRAZIK, secretary, Westwood planning commission, spoke on the background and formation of that commission and the progress and reasons for master zoning and the current question of rezoning.

Malcolm Ferguson, Beverly school principal, spoke on the seriousness of the delinquency of state aid payments to the Birmingham school district and urged residents to contact their representatives urging the expediting of such payments.

Greenfield PTA To Meet March 4

BEVERLYS — The March 4 meeting of the Greenfield school PTA will be a workshop program devoted to the discussion and analyzing of the "Studying Michigan Schools Optionnaire" filled out by the parents last November at Greenfield, the only school in the Birmingham district to be included in the overall state survey.

Such topics as curriculum, financing and administration in our schools among others will be discussed at the meeting which will take place in the multi-purpose room at 8 p.m.

Election of officers for the next PTA school year will also take place at the meeting. Dave Raupp, Bob Kennedy and Robert Morehead acted as the nominating committee.

Schools Sponsor Village Blood Bank

BEVERLYS — The Westwood Village Blood Bank will be sponsored by the Greenfield school and will be held July 6 at the school. Mrs. Fred Porter is general chairman and Mrs. Lee Anderson is recruitment chairman.

The project will be a joint effort of Greenfield, Valley Woods, Beverly and Our Lady Queen of Martyrs schools.

Greenfield-Beverly Improvement Association

BEVERLYS — The Greenfield-Beverly Improvement association will hold a general meeting March 3 at the home of Joseph D. Braden on Locherie.

Social Dance Craze Hits Valley Woods

VALLEY WOODS — Social dancing has become quite the favorite pastime in Valley Woods for both parents and youngsters.

A Wednesday night group meet in the various area homes with former Arthur Murray instructor Sheldon Scott. Last week, in spite of a broken leg and wearing a cast, Scott was out on the floor demonstrating various techniques assisted by fellow instructor, Dick Price.

Joining the John T. Crook at their Hampstead drive home were Mr. and Mrs. Meyer Fine, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Toyman, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Stein, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lynch and Mr. and Mrs. Irving Weil.

Some eighty Valley Woods fifth and sixth graders have their dancing class on Wednesday from 5 to 6 p.m. in the school gym.

In another dance group on Thursday evenings, couples becoming quite proficient in the rumba, swing and cha-cha met last week at the Michal Gimnes home on Tall Oaks drive with their instructors and the second will be held today with Carl Pendrack in charge of the group.

Joining the fun were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gatward, Mr. and Mrs.

People's Column 1st Rate Area But 2nd Rate In Thinking?

To the Editor: We have a first rate community in Bloomfield, but we are heading towards a second rate thinking in terms of education and if we don't remedy our thinking we may not sustain THAT standard.

The assessed valuation of homes in the Bloomfield Hills school district is $67,400,000—an impressive figure for a community that boasts a beautiful setting, green fields, fine schools and secure environments for our children.

The "frills" that have been referred to in Bloomfield Hills schools do not exist—we boast no swimming pools, no lights for the football field, no extra incentive for teachers—we want only the meat and potatoes of a solid educational system for our children.

IN THE coming election they are not asking for more of anything—only to maintain what we have—kindergarten, buses, small classes, full day sessions—which will not be continued because of
