

Attendants Gowned In Blue Silk Organza

Gowned in antique silk, Patricia Ann Starret became the bride of Thomas Roman Hernaeki, II, Saturday morning at St. Bede's church. The Rev. William Berdan, S. J., performed the double-ring ceremony in the presence of 300 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Andrew Starret of Pleasant trail, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Frank Roman Hernaeki of Ferndale.

THE BRIDE'S GOWN featured a sweetheart neckline, short sleeves and fitted bodice. A crown of seed pearls secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of faji mums and pale yellow roses.

Judy Starret was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Josephine MacDonald and Geraldine Kummer. They were gowned in blue silk organza featuring sabrina necklines and full skirts.

Thomas Frost stood as best man and seating the guests were Franklin Sidlow and William Gannon.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Starret wore a silk shantung dress with matching beige satin cummerbund and miniature orchids.
