JANET D. BROWN

Janet Brown Plans Spring Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. John Lothrop Brown, Jr., of Cantonment, Bloomfield township, announce the engagement of their daughter, Janet Douglas, to John Ward Pearson of Kirkwood, Mo. He is the son of Mrs. R. Hall Pearson and the late Mr. Pearson.

The bride-to-be was graduated from the University of Wisconsin, where she was affiliated with Delta Gamma sorority. John also attended the University of Wisconsin, and was a member of Sigma Chi. A spring wedding is planned.

SOCIETY

Alums Attend Gourmet Buffet

Alumnae of Delta Zeta sorority and their guests will meet today at 1 p.m. for an unusual gourmet buffet luncheon at Postale Federal Savings and Loan building. Nearly 200 will be on hand to sample favorite dishes contributed by the alumnae and recipes will be available.

Mrs. William Bostick of the Wayne university home economics staff will be guest speaker. Mrs. Bostick is an outstanding authority on gourmet cooking, having had formal study at the Cordon Bleu Cooking school in Paris to enhance her natural talents with the handling of foods.

In charge of arrangements for today's luncheon was Mrs. Donald Burch. Others assisting with special preparations were Mrs. Winfield Hinman, Mrs. W. D. Perry, Mrs. Francis Lutzke, Mrs. Cecil King and Mrs. Charles Hollis.

Sorority's Luncheon

Alpha Chi Omega met Saturday at Aunt Fannie's Inn for a 1 p.m. luncheon. Guest speaker was Mrs. Clarence W. Blenman, who gave a book review on "Goodby to Uncle Tom".

Couple Exchange Vows In St. Petersburg

Trinity Lutheran church in St. Petersburg, Fla., was the scene for the December wedding of Evelyn Fredrickson to Marcus Robert Frost.

MR. AND MRS. MARCUS FROST

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Harold Fredrickson of Melbourne, Fla., and the late Mr. Fredrickson. Dr. and Mrs. Marcus W. Frost of Houma, La., Birmingham, are the parents of the groom.

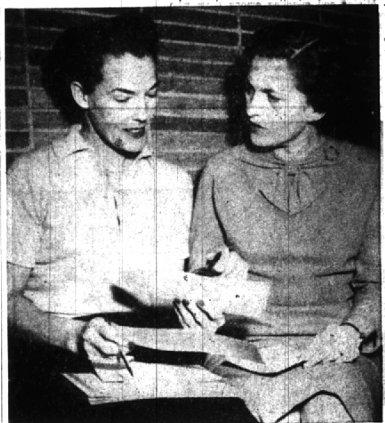

GIVEN IN marriage by her brother, 2nd Lt. Walter G. Fredrickson, the bride wore a gown of taupe de soie and rosepointe lace. The sabrina neckline was outlined in scalloped lace and the plicated skirt fell into a cathedral train.

A princess crown of seed pearls and sequins held her finger tip veil of English illusion. Her bouquet was centered with an orchid.

Her bridesmaid, Raymella Carter, was gowned in yellow chiffon and velvet, and the two bridesmaids, Barbara Hall and Bobbie Deering, wore similar gowns in two shades of blue.

JOHN ALTON CAMPBELL of Gainesville acted as best man and James Powers and Raymond Carter were ushers. Reception followed at the church.

The bride received her BA degree from Florida State university and is presently on the faculty of Lealman Junior high school. Her husband received his AB and MA degrees from the University of Florida in Gainesville and is now with the Southeastern Engineering Co. in Clearwater, where the couple will make their home.

Contributors Campaign

Women's division of the 1959 campaign committee for the Society of Contributors to the Detroit Symphony orchestra is midway in the drive for contributions. The campaign will reach a climax with two membership teas—one in Grosse Pointe Jan. 28 and the second, Jan. 30 at the home of Mrs. Max H. Fruhauf, Brookside drive, Bloomfield Hills. Local chairman, Mrs. Grant Watt, is being assisted by Mrs. James F. Gillen. Two of their area chairmen (from left) Mrs. Rinehart S. Bright and Mrs. Nelson Kimball are filling out membership applications. Other captains are Mrs. C. J. Demrick, Mrs. Carl Snyder and Mrs. Marcus Frost. Workers for the contributors drive include Mrs. J. C. Pinney, Mrs. R. E. Lyon, Mrs. J. N. Coup, Mrs. L. B. Bornhorst, Mrs. Harold Weckler, Mrs. John Kerr and Mrs. Jervais Trichel.

PTA Members Meet

Derby junior high PTA meeting last week. They discussed "Parents Responsibility in Sex Education." Payton, Dr. Robert Mason and Dr. Frederic Adams, were speakers at the program.

Shrine Graduates To Wed in May

MADONNA SPRINGER

Madonna Jeanne Springer's engagement to Felix A. Charlier is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bradford L. Springer of Vinewood, Birmingham. Mr. and Mrs. Felix A. Charlier of Washington boulevard, Birmingham, are parents of the prospective groom.

The bride-elect was graduated from the Shrine of The Little Flower and Providence hospital school of Nursing. Felix was graduated from the same school and the University of Detroit.

Plans are being made for a May 23rd wedding.

Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Green Entertain at Open House

The punch bowl in the Hupp Cross road home of Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Green was in use from 2 p.m. at a recent open house.

Carol entertained her friends in the afternoon and friends of the family dropped in all evening long. Douglas entertained 40 of his friends with a skating party at Orchard Lake Country club. Most of them were houseguests that fateful night.

Tim Putney of Kalamazoo had been Douglas' houseguest for three days during the week. Douglas will graduate from U of M Jan. 21 with a master's in business administration.

Today the Greens will bid farewell at the airport to Michio Endo, who has been studying radiological chemistry at the Phoenix memorial in Ann Arbor this past year and is on his way home to Japan.

The Harry Walshes of N. Glenary recently entertained at a two large cocktail and dinner parties.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Richardson, Jr. and children spent a vacation in Florida. They visited with Richardson's sister and family. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Howell, in St. Petersburg some days were spent on the East coast with the A. J. Rhodes in their home on Hillshore Beach.

The Driftwood in Ft. Meyers, Fla., was headquarters for Dr. and Mrs. T. O. Stewart and their family. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Myron Martin, former V calliebers-birdon Martin, former Village residents and were entertained by several friends.

They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stahlberg. During the week they attended a party given by Dr. and Mrs. Simeon Simon at their estate on the Calosahatche river. They were guests of the Martins at the Ft. Meyers golf club on Saturday night.

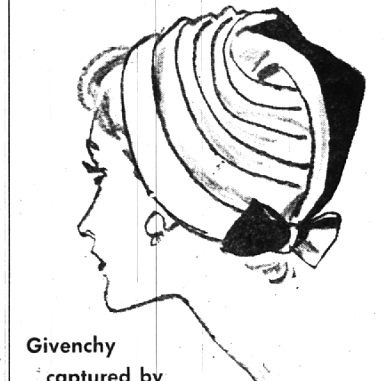

The John Anna's houseguest was Mrs. Anna's brother, John Moore. A dinner party was given by daughters, Ginny and Sally, before Judy Woods' ball, and by the eight young folks who enjoyed the hospitality of the Annas' Covington drive home when they found the roads too icy for further travel.

The William A. Paddisons, Wendy and Robert went skiing at Otsego. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weir, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Muzzy, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Berndt and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Klarr from Birmingham made up their party.

The S. J. Gillens, Elizabeth, Mary, and Kitty also enjoyed the slopes at Otsego for a week. They found them unusually fast and thought they saw half of Birmingham.

Terry Cruickshank celebrated his ninth birthday Dec. 21 at his grandmother's. Mrs. Howard Keating entertained her 15 grandchildren, all under 10, at a luncheon. They all exchanged presents with her and with one other cousin and Terry was the inspiration for the dessert—birthday cake and ice cream.

The Cruicks entertained their neighbors Sunday evening—the Austin Conrads and the Edmond Walshes with the Walshes' house-
