Alencon Lace Accents
Peau de Soie Gown

A wedding trip to El Paso, Texas, where they are making their home, followed the marriage of Judith McGowan Neff and Edward Lee Stutz.

Vows were exchanged at a home ceremony before members of the immediate families in December with the Rev. Robert Gibson of the First Presbyterian church officiating.

Judith's alencon lace cap was made from the lace on her mother's wedding gown and more of the same lace accented her peau de soie gown.

THE BRIDE is the daughter of Mrs. Jerome Price Neff, Birmingham, and the late Mr. Neff. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Stutz of Yosemite, Birmingham.

JUDITH'S ATTENDANTS were twin sisters, Alana Dodge as maid of honor, and Eleanor Dodge as bridesmaid. They wore red velvet sheath dresses and carried white fur muffs with sprigs of holly.

Their little sister, Tabitha Dodge, acted as flower girl and ring bearer. She wore a turquoise bouffant dress and carried a white fur muff with holly. Rings were wedded in a whitebox on the holy.

Donald Russell served as best man.

For her daughter's wedding and openhouse at home, Mrs. Neff wore Kelly green taffeta and white orchids. The groom's mother was in blue satin and her corsage was pink roses.
