Annual President's Ball Scheduled in Franklin

FRANKLIN—The grandest and most gala event of the winter season, the annual President's Ball traditionally held by the Franklin Community association, will once again be a dinner-dance at the Birmingham country club Jan. 24.

Honoring out-going president Orland Ellis and new president James P. O'Neill, the party this year will be further enhanced by a "cocktail hour" from 7 to 8 p.m., preceding the dinner.

Unable to entertain at a Christmas open house since fire destroyed their community hall a year ago, the association decided to host dinner guests to a pre-party just right at the club.

William Madolin, in charge of this year's arrangements, and a good man to see for tickets, Tom Danner will be served at 8:30 and dancing is scheduled from 9:30 till early Sunday morning.

Preserving another custom, Mr. and Mrs. Orland Ellis will honor out-going and incoming board members and their wives at a cocktail party, before the cocktail party, at their home on N. Cromwell.

Supping together this Friday night at a pot-luck affair in the social hall of the Franklin Community church, families in the area will not only share favorite dishes but will also hear Henry Lucy of India as guest speaker.

After the last overwhelming response to a pot-luck dinner in December, committees urge that each family bring greater quantities of food proportionate with its size and capacity, plus.

Sixth grade Confidential has it that the perennial girl-parade parties have blossomed again. Zee Zee of Garden Way hosted the new crop as a birthday celebration last week.

Fellowship Circle members will hear Mrs. Max Williams, who attended the U. N. Seminar in November and has been a member of the general assembly since 1956. Meeting at the home of Mrs. Howard East, 31005 McKinney drive the group will be served a dessert at 12:30 by Mrs. Webb Lee and Mrs. Roberta Owens.

Dr. Zar Reader was named chairman of the zoning board of appeals Tuesday, with Harry Dobson as vice chairman and Norman Krieger secretary.

Village Players Plan Winter Party

FRANKLIN—With flood lights from the homes of three members illuminating the sloop along Colony street, Franklin Village Players will have a sledding and toboggan party Friday night.

Gathering at the home of Mrs. and Mrs. Phil Price, the group will first hold a short business meeting at 7:30 p.m., after which there will be an old fashioned sleigh ride. Skiers will be encouraged to try the rolling terrain and there will be saucer races, too. Prospective members are invited as guests of active members.
