

Maples Lose Second Straight; Bow to P.H.

Although he had a clear shot at the net, Ron Sturs, of the Green Hornets, couldn't find the puck in time when it rolled behind his skate. Waiting for an opportunity to get the puck was Rick Thornton, (3) also of the Green Hornets. The Hornets and the Yellow Jackets played to a 2-2 tie.

Varsity Shop center Jerry Beck lets one corner of the net for the first-period goal go from 10 feet out in spite of Dahlquist's effort. Ron Cornilla's attempt to get Beck's stick off the ice in senior league action Saturday. Beck's shot went into the upper right hand

Jim Bragaw puts the puck in the net in spite of the three Huskies surrounding him as he put the Jets into the front in the first period. Bragaw took the pass from Jim Lindemith in the corner and moved in for the shot behind the defensemen. The Jets went on to win, 2-1.

E. Detroit Also Beats Local Team

Birmingham will take a week off to recuperate from two straight Eastern Michigan league losses this week.

The Maples, who bowed to Port Huron, 6-5, Tuesday night, and to East Detroit, 6-5, Friday, will not see action again until Tuesday when they visit defending league champion Ferndale.

It has been a rough week for the local castrs.

Banshees Make Move In Jr. Hockey Loop

The Banshees are beginning to make their move in the recreation junior hockey league now.

They moved into second place Saturday, only one point behind the league-leading Yellow Jackets, on the strength of a 5-0 win over last place Eldorado.

A 2-2 tie between the Green Hornets and the Jackets aided the Banshees' cause.

First period goals by Art Trzenka, Ed Brown and Mike Davis clinched the decision early for the Banshees, but Trzenka added another in the third and Mike Thornton finished the scoring a few minutes later.

Ted Elliott put the Yellow Jackets out in front in the second period when he intercepted a pass and scored on a solo effort, but Bill

Out of the frying pan and into the fire. It is the only way to describe Detroit Country Day's position following Tuesday's loss to Grosse Pointe university school and Friday's trouncing at the hands of Huron.

Country Day Coach Dan Halling charges will visit Harper Woods tomorrow night and then host a tough Lamphere quintet Tuesday.

Grosse Pointe university school had too much of everything for Country Day, defeating the local 50-25.

The Yellow Jackets trailed, 29-13, at half-time and scored only 12 points in the last two periods.

Bob Wood had 12 for Grosse Pointe and John Seefey scored 10 for losers.

Chiefs' Continue Hot Pace in Senior Loop

The unbeaten, untied Chiefs continued their sizzling pace in the recreation senior hockey loop Sunday by crushing the Paul LaFontaine scored for the Oaks in the first period with the help of his brother, Dick, and Byron Smith tallied a consolation goal late in the third period.

Varsity Shop made it three in a row in hopes of catching the Chiefs in a late-season drive as Jerry Beck and Bud Corton scored early in the game for a 2-1 win over Dahlquist.

BECK was assisted by Corton on his goal and both teams settled down to defensive hockey after Ron Cornilla tallied late in the first for Dahlquist.

Jets, Bulldogs Clash For First Place Sat.

First place in the recreation intermediate hockey league will be at stake Saturday when the Jets and the Bulldogs clash at Eton park rink at 8:50 a.m.

Both teams remained tied for first following Saturday's action as the Bulldogs, trounced the Tigers, 5-0, and the Jets edged past the Huskies, 2-1.

JOHN WATSON, George Forrest and John Sison all scored first-period goals for the Bulldogs. Forrest and George Harris assisted on Sison's and Watson's goals respectively.

A scoreless second period precluded another outburst by the Bulldogs as Steve Parry tallied and Watson watched his second goal of the morning.

The Jets had a more difficult time of it, eking out a 2-1 decision over the Huskies.

A STUBBORN Huskie squad kept the Jets contained after Jim Bragaw scored early in the first for the winners. He was assisted by Bob Cox.

Rob Ruddy tied it up a few minutes later after taking a perfect pass from Jim Lindemith.

Both teams played defensive hockey and stiff backchecking on both sides kept puck carriers from coming in too fast. Only two penalties were called in the game, however.

MIKE JACKSON broke the tie midway in the third period by pushing in Dave Jensen's rebound shot. Excellent goal-tending kept the Huskies from scoring during the final minutes.

Jays Beat Walled Lake, Visit Farmington Fri.

When coaches scheduled Farmington, of the Inter-Lakes league, several years ago, they always looked upon the game as a "breather."

That was several years ago.

FARMINGTON has reached a new level in the basketball world and Southfield will find out just how high a level tomorrow night when they visit Farmington high.

Although the two teams didn't meet in the Northwest suburban holiday tournament, Farmington lost to Redford Union by one point, 68-62.

Redford Union went all the way to the finals before bowing to Southfield for the tournament title.

Baron '5' Drops 2nd Straight

In the 46-24 loss to Huron, Country Day scored exactly one point in the first period while Huron pushed in 16.

THE YELLOW JACKETS scored 11 points in the second period while Huron had 12, but they picked up three points on the winners in the third period.

It was the fourth period that was the most trying, however. Country Day scored only three points in the finale.

Bob Suernik and Ken Korman had 12 apiece for the winners and Ken Derleth found the range for nine for the Yellow Jackets.

Along the Sidelines with Bill Arthur

Now that it is officially known that Detroit will have a boat show this year, it seemed reasonable to find out just who was attempting the promotion.

For the uninformed, the Detroit News dropped its sponsorship of the annual extravaganza that dealt with local marine affairs.

THE FIRST announcement to hit this desk came on dark blue stationery and this gave an inkling as to the type of man promoting the new show. The letterhead read "Jerry Worthington Productions, Inc."

Since the publicity blurb also invited the reader to a party in order to meet Mr. Worthington, it was felt that attendance to the affair was practically mandatory.

Upon meeting Worthington, you begin to realize that Worthington makes a production of Worthington besides the boat show.

If the show is promoted half as well, it should be a smashing success.

At any rate, it is soon discovered that any resemblance between this forthcoming show and ones previously held in the area are purely coincidental.

THIS WILL be a cross-breeding of a Broadway musical production and the latest in boats and equipment—if you can imagine the combination. Worthington, it developed, is a refugee from Broadway and environs and has had a hand in several major productions as an assistant director, producer (See SIDELINES, Page 2-E).
