This is what's left of John Lindsay's car. Lindsay, 5041 Ivanhoe, Detroit, was caught on Woodward near Long Lake road last week when the temperature dropped suddenly causing the snow to freeze. In avoiding other sliding, spinning cars, Lindsay drove his car up the parkway behind his companion out the other door and jumped out after him just as a station wagon, owned by Kent H. Stammer, 22301 Englehart, St. Clair Shores, came smashing into the side.

Police Plan Considered by Commission

Birmingham's City commission Monday night tentatively approved a mutual police assistance plan that would benefit 15 South Oakland communities.

The plan, called the "South Oakland County Reciprocal Police Aid Agreement," has already been approved by the chiefs of the communities involved. The next step is to get final approval of the mayors and city clerks.

Basically the plan would permit one or several cities to send police assistance to another in case of an emergency.
