

Couple Exchange Vows At St. Paul's Church

St. Paul's church in Grosse Pointe was the scene Saturday for the marriage of Julie Anne Schumacher and Richard Dana Fitzhugh. Vows were exchanged at 1 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hazen J. Schumacher of Grosse Pointe. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William D. Fitzhugh, 1188 Ruffner, Birmingham.

JULIE APPEARED in a gown of champagne chantilly lace over silk satin and carried eucharist ilico.

Mrs. Simon O'Shea, Jr., was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a green emerald dress and carried yellow and rust carnations.

William H. O'Neill, Jr., of Birmingham was best man.

JULIE'S MOTHER chose a two-toned blue silk dress and brown cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Fitzhugh wore shirred pink carnations with her navy empire dress.

The bride attended the University of Michigan last Saturday night where Mr. and Mrs. John O'Hara, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Diehl Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John Scolaro and Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Cruise.

Others were Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Anderman, Mrs. H. S. Maxon and Mr. and Mrs. Howard T. Reating Jr. This group meets regularly to enjoy a pot-luck supper together.

The William Slocums and the James H. Moore of Hall Moon road introduced the Eugene A. Moores, newest arrivals in the neighborhood, to other neighbors in the Slocum home Friday night.

Being addressed by her older brothers and sisters these days is seven week old Mary Beth, daughter of the James Couzens II of Ambery road. She is the fourth red head that the stork has delivered to this family.

Mrs. Walker A. Williams returned last week from a three week stay at Hillsboro Beach, Fla. Mr. Williams and son, John, spent a short time there, returning here after New Year's.

Entertaining 23 guild members of Holy Name Altar society for dessert and coffee Monday was Mrs. Hyman's of Yarmouth road.

Instructive spiritual discussion was led by Mrs. M. J. Dempsey of Hupp Cross road, who came prepared with excerpts from books

MRS. RICHARD FITZHUGH

Following a reception at the Village Manor, Grosse Pointe, the couple left for a ski trip to Black Bend on the Au Sable. Upon return they will make their home on Nottingham road, Grosse Pointe.

New Branch Of WNFGA

A recent meeting was at the home of Mrs. Charles Leinenkugel of Manchester drive, Birmingham, for the purpose of forming a branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association. This branch will be called the Pembroke Manor branch.

Mrs. Arthur Hyde, Michigan extension chairman, and Mrs. William McCallum, National extension chairman, assisted in forming this branch. Officers elected were Mrs. Charles Leinenkugel, president; Mrs. William O'Neill, vice president; Mrs. David Pritchard, treasurer; and Mrs. Donald Feather, secretary.

Ten members signed the charter for this organization to meet the fourth meeting Mrs. William O'Neill will present a program on flower arranging.

Piano Program For Sigma Kappas

Detroit alumnae chapter of Sigma Kappa will meet for dinner and a business session at 6:30 p.m., Jan. 26 at the Brookdale Park home of Mrs. Arthur Kaufmann.

Following the business meeting Dorothy Kemp Roosevelt will be hostess to the group at her Greenwood street studio. A program of two-night music will be presented by Mrs. Roosevelt and Mrs. Charles Huntton.

Vassar Club's College Seminar

Detroit and Birmingham Vassar club will have a Vassar College Seminar Wednesday at The Grosse Pointe War Memorial, 32 Lake Shore drive, Grosse Pointe.

Vassar alumnae planning to attend are Mrs. Frank Lumberson, Mrs. George Jacoby, Mrs. Robert Stevenson, Mrs. William Jackson, Mrs. William Gimman and Mrs. Richard Heaverlich.

Guests attending will be Mrs. Orville Beardsley, Mrs. David Meeker, Mrs. Gordon White, Mrs. Howard Willett, Roxane Lambie, Mrs. John May, Mrs. George Green and Mrs. Orrin Mohler.

Club Entertained

Marion Goodale, headmistress of Kingswood school Cranbrook, will entertain members of the Altrusa club of Greater Birmingham, Monday at 7 p.m. for dessert.

Around the World

with Grace Reilly

OLSON
specializes in
tours to EUROPE

Luxury, Deluxe and Student Tours

Reservations should be made NOW!

Famous LONDON BRIDGE

BIRMINGHAM TRAVEL SERVICE

379 Hamilton MI 4-5711

Cruiser-Tours

Cabaret Party Benefits Seminary

Looking over the latest hit records are University of Detroit alumnae (from left) Charlotte Malpei, Mrs. Carl Hill and Mrs. James King. They are planning for the annual cabaret party set for Feb. 6 at the Latin Quarter, for which benefits will be directed to Colomiere college, the new Jesuit Seminary, recently constructed in the Waterford area. Mrs. Joseph E. Halfmann, Jr. is chairman and Mrs. Joseph A. Pettit, co-chairman. Reservations are being taken by Mrs. Charles D. Allegrina with Miss Malpei handling tickets. Active alumnae from the Birmingham area planning cocktail parties before their evening at the Latin Quarter are Mr. and Mrs. Charles DePuydt, Mr. and Mrs. Donald D. Byerlein, Dr. and Mrs. Harold Holden, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Solner, Mr. and Mrs. William Sasena and the Kings and the Hills.

Students Brave Weather At Proud Lake Campout

The sixth grade Eastover school children joined forces Jan. 5 with Hickory Grove in a five-day winter campout at Proud Lake Conservation camp near Milford.

The 64 children and their counselors spent time ice fishing, tobogganing, sledding, hiking and cooking out. Forest rangers gave talks on soil conservation and state troopers taught gun safety.

Counseling the group were Mrs. Ruth DeCoo, principal of Eastover, and Eastover and Hickory Grove teachers: Clinton Cook, Charles Lemke, Mrs. Linda Binkow, Mrs. Neta Allhouse, Mrs. Nancy Sorenson and Miss June Alby.

Helen Hoots-like, daughter of the Walter Hoots-like of Spur Hill drive, recently hosted a skating party at the Cranbrook Skating club. The 12 guests were her sixth grade classmates at Harlan school. With the help of her mother, Hoots served refreshments at the gayly decorated table centered with a skating scene.

Ninety friends and neighbors gathered at the Bowling road home of the George Jones for cocktails and buffet supper an evening during the holiday season.

The John Wrights and children, Dick, David and Laurie, of Evansdale road, are among the Birmingham ski enthusiasts, enjoying the northern ski slopes. They spent the week following Christmas at Otsego. This is six-year-old Laurie's second year for the sport.

Dr. and Mrs. James Mimura of Haddington road hosted a cocktail party the first Sunday in January, introducing their houseguest, Miss Sadako Mimura of San Francisco, the doctor's sister. The guests were all of Charing Cross estates.

Visiting the Elmer Gerhardt of Haddington road is Mrs. Gerhardt's mother, Mrs. Ferdinand Chénick of Weslaco, Tex. Mrs. Chénick arrived here Dec. 18 and plans to return home in February by way of Des Moines, Iowa, to visit a son.

Mrs. Thomas McDonald entertained at luncheon in her Haddington road home last Thursday, honoring her neighbors and their houseguests. Included were Mrs. Richard Aylward, Mrs. Joseph Odeweller, Mrs. E. G. Gerbard and her mother, Mrs. Ferdinand Chénick, and Mrs. James Mimura and her sister-in-law, Miss Sadako Mimura.

New Year's Eve will long be remembered by hosts and guests alike for the hazardous road conditions. Among the hosts entertain-

North Adams

Elizabeth Yates MI 6-1682

ing on that night were the John Bohrs of Charnwood drive.

Guests at their party included the Earl Heins, the Richard James and the P. Fred Leslies of Birmingham, the William Hissels and the Richard Jacquits of Royal Oak.

Others were the Ray Hylands of Rochester, the Rudy Flemings and the Harvey Michells of Detroit, the Jack Bedfords of Lake Orion, and the Robert Banns of Marine City.

The First Baptist church of Birmingham, stewardship class, met recently at the Bolingbroke drive home of the Charles Morose. Speaking to the group is 30 was Dick Hart, who conducts a Sunday school class in downtown Detroit.

Hostesses assisting Mrs. Morose were Mrs. Kenneth Kilbury, Mrs. Stewart Smith and Mrs. Guy Holloway.

Newcomers to N. Evansdale road is Mrs. Shirley Smith and her three children, formerly of Wood Creek Farms. Mrs. Smith is owner of the Inspection Shop in Birmingham. Her daughter, Nora Lee, is a freshman at Michigan State, and sons, Alfred A. H. (Skip) is attending Farmington high and Craig is a student at Harlan.

The Henry Whittings of Orchard Hill drive, hosted a skating and supper party Friday. After supper, the guests donned their skates and took over the natural rink in the Whittings garden. Skaters were the Roger Atens, the John Edens, the Jim Van Dusens and the William Seiberts, all of Hickory Heights.

Five friends joined Garry Holcomb of W. Dresden Hill drive Saturday in his 11th birthday celebration.

The party began when Garry and dad took the boys on a trip through the Nike missile station at Auburn Heights in the afternoon, which included viewing the radar room, the underground missile storage vault and the army barracks. Garry's guests were John Duffer, Jim Yates, Jack Albertson of Birmingham and Scott Thornburn of Royal Oak.

Parents of the Harlan school gathered in the multi-purpose room last Wednesday to hear Dr. William W. Mahan, Jr., diagnostician for the Ferndale board of education, guest speaker at the PTA meeting. Dr. Mahan's illustrated talk with movies, "The Parent as

Bloomfield Village

Marilyn Dickerson MA 5-1359

Mr. and Mrs. F. Murphys, Jr. Entertain at Pot-Luck

Having dinner pot-luck style at the Frank Murphys Jr. of Westwood road last Saturday night were Mr. and Mrs. John O'Hara, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Diehl Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John Scolaro and Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Cruise.

Others were Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Anderman, Mrs. H. S. Maxon and Mr. and Mrs. Howard T. Reating Jr. This group meets regularly to enjoy a pot-luck supper together.

The James H. Moore of Hall Moon road introduced the Eugene A. Moores, newest arrivals in the neighborhood, to other neighbors in the Slocum home Friday night.

Being addressed by her older brothers and sisters these days is seven week old Mary Beth, daughter of the James Couzens II of Ambery road. She is the fourth red head that the stork has delivered to this family.

Mrs. Walker A. Williams returned last week from a three week stay at Hillsboro Beach, Fla. Mr. Williams and son, John, spent a short time there, returning here after New Year's.

Entertaining 23 guild members of Holy Name Altar society for dessert and coffee Monday was Mrs. Hyman's of Yarmouth road.

Instructive spiritual discussion was led by Mrs. M. J. Dempsey of Hupp Cross road, who came prepared with excerpts from books

Betrothal Told

Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Arnesen of Staten Island, N. Y., announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Lee, to Macchists Mate 3/c, Carl Cyril Morrow, U.S. Coast Guard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Morrow of Cranbrook school, Bloomfield Hills. A wedding date has not been set.

crisp cottons, dainty organdies, assorted colors swing the tiny Miss into spring... all by a well-known manufacturer at this very special price

SALE!
GIRLS' 3-6x DRESSES 6.90

Store Hours
Mon. thru Sat.
9:30 A.M. to 5:30 P.M.

Mrs. Butler is from Eric, Pa. She is a graduate nurse of University hospital in Ann Arbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Calver have just moved to their new home on Yarmouth road from Pilgrim road where they had lived for 18 years. Calver is with the Buick-Golds-mobile-Pontiac assembly division of General Motors. Their children are David, 17, Julie, 15 and John, 8 years old.

Jacobson's
childrens shops

Willets at Woodward Birmingham

LAST TWO DAYS! FRIENDSHIP SALE OF EDWARDS CHILDREN'S SHOES

20% OFF

Just tomorrow and Saturday... your last chance to buy 6.50 to 9.50 Edwards children's shoes at such savings! We've an entire stock of boys' and girls' dress and school styles; shoes famous for perfect fit, construction and fine workmanship. Small size 6 1/2 to large size 7.

Jacobson's
childrens shops

2-Hour Free Parking
HAVE YOUR TICKET VALIDATED WHEN YOU MAKE A PURCHASE AT JACOBSON'S

Willets at Woodward Birmingham

a warm, perky snowsuit for your 3-to-6x daughter, at a remarkable budget price! braid-trimmed water-repellent cotton poplin with quilt and pile lining; detachable hood, red, peacock, grey.

SALE!
GIRLS' 3-6x SNOWSUITS 9.90

Jacobson's
childrens shops

Willets at Woodward Birmingham

donnell HAIR STYLISTS
Michigan's MIRACLE MILE

DEDICATED— TO WOMEN

HER BEAUTY
HER CHARM

FE 8-9639

With or Without Appointment

Hours: 10 to 9