Success at Spaghetti Earns Awards for Scout Troop

There is no better way for a girl scout troop to obtain cooking badges than to plan a dinner party. This was done Jan. 12 by girl scout troop 694 under the direction and at the home of their leader Mrs. Maurice Irvin, 1614 Witherbee road. Co-leader Mrs. Vernon Doering assisted.

The girls drew slips to determine what they were to make and arrived at the Irvin's home shortly after school at Pembroke ended to their chosen spaghetti was the main course.

While some were attending to kitchen duty, others were being tested by Mrs. Irvin and Mrs. Doering about various cooking terms and abbreviations.

Scouts participating were Joan Coppens, Jan Eckberg, Patsy Irvin, Susan Laney, Judy O'Kelly, Laura Ravard, Linda Sharrard, Nan Simmons, Pam Snyder, Wendy Stephens, Candy Neiger and Cassie Barnes.

A trip to Bay City Mich. was taken recently by Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Gobeke, 1433 Wrenwood, and their daughter Jane. While there, they were the houseguests of Mrs. Gobeke's family, Mr. and Mrs. James Wylie.

Highlight of the trip was a family reunion and party to celebrate the Wylie's 50th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Parrish, 1071 Norwich road, entertained friends and neighbors recently at a party centered around ping pong, bowling, bumper pool and dancing.

Present partaking in the fun were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hooker, Mr. and Mrs. Larry McManus, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Glass, Mr. and Mrs. Mac McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hooks, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Boston and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Connolly.

Another party of interest was held by Mr. and Mrs. Leon Lewis, 1889 Derby road, when they entertained their friends for an old fashioned "jam session." Each guest brought his favorite instrument and partook in a musical evening. Those not musically inclined sang along with the band.

Present for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. George Wendler, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Hankins, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Coatts, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Donnelly and Mr. and Mrs. Wess Burton.

Jan. 2, 1959 was a big day in the life of Bobby Reid, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Reid, 154 Witherbee road, as he was five years old and a party was planned in his honor.

Mrs. Reid carried out the Mickey Mouse theme in decorations and cake arrangements for Tommy Schulte, Peggy Ross, Jeff Burd, Nancy Hogan and Bobby Whitehead.

The children were favored with slate boards, balloons and the many table decorations.

Everyone enjoys a vacation but not everyone is as fortunate as the Joseph Rewards and children, Laura, 12, Michael, 8, of 1835 Derby road, who spent seven months of last year touring the United States and Mexico.

The children, who attend Pembroke school, received some formal education while in Mexico. They learned to speak a little Spanish, but more to their advantage learned the habits and ways of living in that part of the world.

While there, the Rewards spent much of their time in Guadalajara and Puerto Vallarta. They thoroughly enjoyed the bull fights and can hardly wait to return.

Back in the states, they spent quite a bit of time in Phoenix, Ariz. until the heat forced them to go to the resort town of Flagstaff. Laura and Michael were amazed at the vastness of the Grand Canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen O. Diebold, 1840 Derby road, entertained three neighborhood couples for dinner last Saturday. They used a Chinese theme for the evening and requested their guests remove their shoes at the door. Dinner was served on a low table and cushions were used in place of chairs.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gabert, Mr. and Mrs. William Talbot and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wahl.

The first regular meeting of the new year of the Adams Village extension group was held Jan. 6 at Mrs. David Salla's home, 1711 Bowers.

A routine business meeting was followed by a group discussion on household hints. This was led by the group president, Mrs. Alex Nicholas.

The next regular meeting will be held Feb. 3 at the home of Mrs. William Kelley, Jr., 1022 Bowers.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sieland, 1537 Wrenwood, entertained neighbors and friends recently for an evening of dancing in their recreation room.

Guests enjoyed a midnight buffet supper served by the hostess.

A busy couple during the past few weeks has been Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dean, 1824 Witherbee road, and children Diana, Chip and Andrea.

First to pay the family a visit was Dean's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Dean of Huntsville, Ala, and four-month-old daughter, Vickie Lee. Soon Mrs. Dean greeted her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Corydon Dunhams of Yonkers, N.Y. While here, the group enjoyed dinner at the Kingsley Inn and an interesting trip to Greenfield Village.

Arriving shortly after the Dunhams departure were more of Dean's family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dean from Boston, and Mr. and Mrs. Renshaw Smith of Cleveland.

The house once again quiet and back to normal, the Dean's felt

Altar Date Set

At a dinner party Mr. and Mrs. Frank Arnold of Bloomfield Hills announced the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth Douglas, to Harry E. Durbin, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Durbin of Birmingham. Harry attends Michigan State university and is a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity. An August wedding is planned.
