

Boy Earns Safety Citation

"On Jan. 8, 1959 at approximately 11:50 a.m., while David Eslick was stationed at Oakland and Adams school crossing, he observed a car traveling south on Adams road was not going to stop for the traffic signal. This alert boy immediately held all the children safely back on the sidewalk as the vehicle passed through the red traffic signal. This was a commendable deed of work and David should be congratulated on the way he handled the situation. We as police officers appreciate the fine job all the

B'field Hills JHS Lancers Whip Holly in 4th Cage Contest

The Lancers were victorious in their fourth basketball game which was played with Holly. The Lancers scored 41 against Holly's 33 points. Cheerleaders Karen Macalpine, Marcee Merrill, Kaye Lewis, and Lynn Schmansky led the cheers for all spectators. The game was held on Wednesday, Jan. 14.

BOYS' basketball practice for squads one, two and three from the eighth and ninth grades intramural teams was held on Monday, Jan. 12. These boys played one game just before the Lancers played with Holly on Wednesday, Jan. 14.

New Ski Club Plans Weekend Trip

The Birmingham ski club, the Schuss Masters, is planning a weekend trip to Walloon Hills on Jan. 30. Seventy some members of the club will make the trip for a special weekend of skiing. The club, newly formed under advisors Mr. Munn and Miss Labbe, makes weekly trips each Wednesday to Mount Grampian at Oxford for practice sessions.

Scribblers club met last Tuesday and considered applications for membership in the club. Three new members were accepted: Gail Lonata, Kaye Olmest and Carol Ann Suddam. The members also reviewed selections written by members for the scholastic writing contests to be held this year. Some original modern poetry was included, and several essays and short stories.

BUNA held a brief meeting last week to discuss the writing of proposals for the general assembly, which will be held in February. Members also enjoyed a film of Turkey which was shown by foreign exchange student, Ercan Sankaya.

Student congress met last Thursday and spent the greater part of an hour discussing the costs of congress-sponsored dances. It was found that more people outside of congress worked on this dance than members themselves.

A meeting of National Honor Society was held last week to ap-
