

Students Have Photos Taken For Year Book

By PATSY GORDON

On Wednesday, Jan. 14, individual pictures were taken for the yearbook. "The Magnificents" Group pictures will be taken soon. During the week of Jan. 19, orders for the second annual yearbook will be taken. The price is $2.25, and this year's book promises to be even better than last year's. Mrs. Nelson is advisor and has chosen the following for her staff: editor, John Keiser, assistant editor, Joyce Root; pictorial editor, Pat Gordon, with assistants Holly Knay, Barbara Vass and Sharon Merritt; clubs and activities editor, Kay Helkinnen, with assistants Judy Frey, Kathy Ruhl, and Wes Gruber. Working on sports are Geoff Gilbert and Joan Osborn, with assistants Don Robinson, Bob Gantner, and Tim Tolle. Bill Schoonmaker is business manager. Cheryl Brokaw is working in publicity.

Barnum's first swimming meet of the year ended in victory. The seventh and eighth graders defeated Fitzgerald's seventh and eighth graders by a score of 44 to 42. The last event of the meet decided the winning team. Barnum captured four firsts with team captain Don Spencer winning the 50-yard butterfly and the 75-yard individual medley. Dave Patton won the 50-yard free style. The first-place winning 200-yard free style team members were Doug Maisie, Mark Smith, Bill Hartman, and Dave Patton. The second and third place points were also important in the win.

Barnum's next meet will be against Derby on Jan. 23, 4 p.m. at Derby. The seventh and eighth grade teams will be competing as individual teams. The teams are coached by Mr. MacGrayne.

The girls' gym classes have just finished a volleyball tournament. Each class had four teams competing against each other. The champion team in each class competed against

NEWS AND VIEWS OFF THE RECORD
Duane Eddy, at the peak of success, has stolen the show again. This time he received top rating at the Detroit Auto Show. On a billing with such stars as the Big Bopper, Jack Scott, the Kalin Twins and the "Slow Walk" man, Gene Austin, Duane and the Rebels made the big hit. Jack Scott was also warmly received. As I understand it, Mr. Popper was not quite as fortunate.

teams from other classes in the same grade in playoffs held after school.

The following ninth grade girls were on the winning team: captain, Ginny Fleck, Judy Hawblitzel, Sandy Genovesi, Marton Fajcs, Joyce Root, Cheryl Brokaw, Shirley Sampson, Margaret Kemp, and Sheila Bird.

The seventh grade team captained by Jackie Winchell, consists of Linda Rutherford, Jane Upward, Diana Shay, Judy Elliott, Sandra Hawkins, Gayle Trainer, Julie White, and Karen Rye.

Barons Downed by Milford

After last Friday's game it certainly appears that Lady Luck has deserted our Barons. Defeated by Milford, 54-48, they had made a great come-back after the half, only to see the Redskins pull ahead again, for up until the last minutes of the game, our Barons were almost always within two tallies of Milford. It is also unfortunate that the Barons got off to another slow start, for it gave the Redskins a chance to conserve their strength for the second half. Better luck next week, team, and let's all hope that Fortune decides to smile a little.

Hey, gang, got any extra loot? If so, why not spend it on the "Sleigh Bells"? One of the most unusual dances to come down on the line yet, it offers a real evening of fun.

First of all there's this sleigh-ride, see. Now I admit it'll cost you another buck seventy-five to enjoy it, but it's worth it, you rascal boys!

And then, after whisking across the moonlit, romantic landscape, you are served this big ol' plate of spaghetti to take an edge off the chill, warm and spicy, an all Finally, after you have enjoyed this regal repast, the lights go down and this music starts playing, and you dance! Great fun, hey? Zowie, yee! Go get those tickets—Jan. 28 at 8 p.m.

If any of you snow-sport enthusiasts are out there, I have a bit of information for you. There is a run for sleds, toboggans, and skis on 14 Mile road, just past Cranbrook road. Not only is it a great run but it is also equipped with lights for night time fun. Take a look if you can't afford Crampian every week.

Looking around: Sue Woodside and Lynn Benjamin had a very unusual type party Saturday afternoon and evening—first, the guests went skating at Sue's, and then transferred to Lynn's, where the evening segment took place—sounds like a good way to spend an evening.
