Square Dance Slated At Wing Lake School

WING LAKE—The annual Wing Lake school square dance will be held at 8:30 p.m. Jan. 30 in the new Bloomfield Hills junior high school at Quanton and Wing Lake road.

General chairman for the event is Mrs. Alex Mair, who extends an urgent invitation to all to come and bring friends since the proceeds from the dance will be used to benefit the new Wing Lake school library, just started this year.

Many more books are needed for the library and the PTU hopes to swell the shelves with new books through a well patronized dance. Chuck Kopta of Birmingham will be the caller.

Mr. Richard Thomas, sixth grade at Wing Lake school is studying the countries of Latin America and has an impressive hall display at the school entrance depicting Mexico. Students have worked in pottery clay, paper mache, water colors and crayons to produce such things as an Aztec shield and spear, a pinata, the Mexican flag, map of Mexico, mountains, pottery, the people and their native dress and habitat, churches and donkeys.

Furthering their study, they are starting a Latin American band under the direction of Mrs. Aino Hill, music supervisor. Instruments being learned by the students are the Accordion, guitars, Bongos, tonettes, maracas and castanets.

Other countries studied are Central America and South America.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Michaels of Thurber road celebrated their 17th wedding anniversary and his birthday at the home of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Vince Bartlett of Roseville last Saturday evening.

Other guests for the evening and a late buffet dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Baker of Detroit.

Mrs. Charles Michaels entertained her neighborhood sewing club Wednesday. Many a stitch in time was taken following dessert and coffee.

Mrs. John Dunn of Worlington road was elected membership chairman of the Birmingham Newcomers club. Officers of the club are elected every six months for this popular club of the Birmingham Community House.

Mrs. Robert Stone of Wing Lake road entertained her bridge club

Oakland Hills, Lone Pine Name Board Members

GILBERT LAKE—At a meeting last week of the Oakland Hills Country club subdivision association the board of directors approved the new officers elected at the December meeting. They are George Kentis, president; Murray (Pat) Van Wagoner, vice-president, and Ed Hill, secretary. Other members of the board are Warren Pease, Bill Shaver, Carl Henriksen and Lloyd Lucia.

Township problems, including water, gas and zoning, were discussed by the board. Ed Hill, spokesman for the group, stated, "There is an increasing necessity for fighting zoning in the township and a great need for an appropriate committee for planning in Bloomfield Township."

At a recent meeting of the Lone Pine Road Estates Improvement Association the following members were elected to the board of directors: Jack Loviner, president; Howard McDonald, vice-president; David Falvey, treasurer and Gordon Joyce, secretary.

Committee chairmen appointed by the board of directors are William Lavis, plans approval; Don McKay, roads and subdivision improvement; Mel Smith, restrictions; Armin Vogel, entertainment; A and Dick Anderson, outfitting.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Robert Wilson of Snowshoe circle entertained members of her bridge club at luncheon. Guests were Mrs. Howard Schweppa, Mrs. Roy Pahl, Mrs. Al Badger, Mrs. Charles Bay, Mrs. Hal Houghton, Mrs. Rowe Balmer, Mrs. William Barrett and Mrs. Harvey Ewald.

Mrs. James Leahy of East Millberry was the guest of honor Friday at a luncheon and baby shower given by Mrs. William Musick and Mrs. Robert Dussau at Mrs. Dussau's home on Carriage road.

Guests included Mrs. John Piccu, Mrs. Al Smith, Mrs. Gerald Johnson, Mrs. James Stone, Mrs. Robert Byrnes, Mrs. Robert Backstrom, Feb. 18.

Mrs. David Goodfellow of Worlington road entertained two tables of cards Tuesday for the AAUW Telephone Bridge. Among guests from Birmingham, Grosse Pointe and Detroit was Mrs. Don Richards of Wing Lake.

Mrs. Ebelyn Rayner, mother of Mrs. Ray Hunter of Worlington road, who has sold her home of 42 years residence in Detroit, came Christmas day to make her home with the Hunters.

Mrs. Fred Gndt, of Worlington, first cousin of Mrs. Rayner, entertained her and the Hunters at dinner last week.

Luncheon will be served at 12:30 Friday, Jan. 30, at Bloomfield Junior high school at Quanton and Wing Lake roads by the Wing Lake Shores W.N.F.G. Following lunch the card party will take over for those who wish to play.

Each table will bear a pretty, imported gift from Hong Kong. Tickets for this gala occasion may be purchased from any member or will be delivered by Mrs. Martin Potts, Mrs. Harry Odle or Mrs. Douglas Russ, all of Mayfair exchange.

Proceeds from this party will be used for civic purposes, the last of which was a landscape project at the new junior high.

Board meeting of Wing Lake branch of W.N.F.G. will be held at 10:30 a.m. Jan. 27 at the home of Mrs. Dorrann Dickerson, Wing Lake road.

Bored With Life? Board a Freighter!

FOXCROFT—Way back last Christmas morning, when most people were wading through paper, ribbon and presents, the W. C. Pattersons and their son, Jimmy, of East Surrey boarded a freighter for a sea voyage to sunny ports.

Their first stop was San Juan, Puerto Rico. After several other stops and sightseeing and shopping at Puerto Rican ports, they sailed to the Virgin Islands.

Shopping in Saint Thomas was such a pleasant experience that Mrs. Patterson now finds she has quite a collection of unusual embroidered blouses, hankies, napkins and even a hand made evening gown!

Sailing home, the Pattersons made several southern stops including Miami, Jacksonville, Savannah and Norfolk. The voyage was not without some excitement.

On the last night out the Pattersons and several other passengers were in the galley having a midnight snack when the captain and several crew members raced in yelling, "Where is the fire?" He explained that the galley's fire alarm had sounded on the bridge.

It seems one of the passengers just couldn't get up for breakfast in the morning. So she solved her problem by having toast and coffee before her.

But she liked her toast burned—in fact, absolutely charred. This night she just charred that toast a little too much and the billows of smoke set off the fire alarm.

Skating at Oscego was a popular sport for Foxcrofters last weekend. Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Perkins, Jr., and their son, Jeff, of Orchard Way spent a long weekend there and plan to go again soon.

The Dick Hassalls of East Surrey took sons, Tom and Kent to the snowy slopes for the weekend

Mailing Address Question Solved In Bloomfield Hills

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP—Bloomfield Hills postal officials finally solved the mailing address riddle in the Quanton road area recently after receiving final word from the Chicago regional office of the department.

Residents on Blanford, Burnham, Snowshoe circle, Cottontail lane, Oakgrove and Lakewood are still being served by the Bloomfield Hills postoffice. Their mail boxes are on Quanton road.

In addition, Lauren court residents, formerly served by the Birmingham post office, are receiving mail through the Bloomfield Hills office.

Stolen Car Returned To Lathrup Woman

LATHRUP—A radio was taken and minor damage done to the interior of a stolen car recovered last weekend by Troy police.

Doris H. Moyer, 27704 East California, Lathrup, reported the car stolen Friday night from a Birmingham municipal parking lot while she was attending a movie.
