United Church Women Hold Annual Meeting

Officers for the coming year were elected, and standing committee chairmen announced last week at the annual meeting of Birmingham United Church Women.

Mrs. Earl Triplett, 450 N. Williamsbury, Bloomfield township, was elected president. Mrs. Triplett has been active at the First Presbyterian church and has served two years as vice president in charge of Christian Social Relations for the United Church Women.

She will be assisted by Mrs. Ernest Nathan, vice president in charge of Christian World Missions; Mrs. John Vander Roest, vice president in charge of Christian World Relations; Mrs. Lynn Russell, vice president in charge of Christian Social Relations.

OTHERS ELECTED were: Mrs. Leet, recording secretary; Mrs. Russell Cawley, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Amos Gregory, treasurer.

Mrs. Fraser Pomeroy, retiring president, will serve as director at large.

Elected standing committee chairmen were: finance, Mrs. Stuart Allen and Mrs. George Meeks; nominating, Mrs. Hollis Halladay; parliamentary procedure, Mrs. Edmond Leavenworth; auditing, Mrs. Dewey Waterman; constitutional revisions, Mrs. Norman Ellis; devotions, Mrs. R. C. Scott; leadership and episcopalian, Mrs. Newell Allen; history, Mrs. Milton J. Taup; directory, Mrs. Irving MacKenzie; publicity, Mrs. Richard Sneed; public relations and education, Mrs. William Hyland; international students, Mrs. George Wecker; outreach, Mrs. Donald Tracy; United Nations, Mrs. Richard Fowler; migrants, Mrs. Ronald Cooper; publications, Mrs. A. C. Childs and Mrs. George Hagman; transportation, Mrs. Robert Swift.

FOLLOWING a luncheon Mrs. Jessie J. McNeil, state president, spoke. She pointed out the need to work towards uniting church women in a program looking to their integration in the life and work of the church.

She also emphasized the importance of good relations with international students in this country—reminding the group that each of these students is a potential leader in his country and that the impression he takes back to his people may have a lasting effect in years to come.

'Teen Town' Meeting

Holy Name's monthly "Teen Town" gathering will be held tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. in the school gym. There will be dancing to records, and refreshments will be sold. Terry Schoenheit is chairman of "Teen Town."

The Supper club of the Congregational church of Birmingham will have a luncheon Tuesday at 12:30 p.m. at the church.

The dinner will be prepared and served by the Supper Club committee. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cline are the chairman. They will be assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Clair D. Vall, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sturgeon, George Elkin, junior warden, George Ramsford, secretary, Joseph Agerson, treasurer.

William Kohrer and Ralph Moulthrop were elected to the mission vestry.

Mrs. Goodfellow Is Guest Speaker

Mrs. David Goodfellow spoke yesterday to the Women's Alliance Church on "The Dead Sea Scrolls." The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Charlie Boyd, Royal Oak.

Mrs. Goodfellow was formerly director of religious education at St. Joseph's Episcopal church, Detroit, and has a Master of Arts degree from the University of Michigan in Oriental Languages and Literature.

Community Youth Service Scheduled

Interdenominational Youth Sunday will be observed by high school young people from many churches in the Birmingham area who will attend a community service at First Presbyterian church at 7:30 p.m. Monday.

"Count-down for Christ" is the theme of the service and young people will hear Magnus Von Braun, pioneer rocket expert, discuss the relevancy of the Christian faith in a missile age such as this.

The address will be preceded by a brief worship service led by young people and the forty-five voice high school choir of First Presbyterian church, under the direction of L. Robert Slusser, minister of music.

Prior to the worship service there will be an opportunity for young people from the different churches to become better acquainted as refreshments are served. Jeanne Lindner is in charge of social arrangements.

Couples Club to See Dancing Exhibition

The Married Couples' club of Redeemer Lutheran church holds its monthly meeting Feb. 6 at 7 p.m.

The evening will consist of a dinner followed by an exhibition of popular dancing by the Roy and Helen Dodge of the Arthur Murray Studios in Birmingham.

Committee members are: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rappert, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Blunt; Mr. and Mrs. William Ray and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Davison.

Presbyterians To Observe Youth Sunday

Attention will be focused on the young people of First Presbyterian church all three services Sunday and at a youth banquet at 5:30 p.m.

Six high school people will participate in the worship service and the Oceanian choir of 55 young girls, directed by Miss Phyllis J. Gardner, and the high school choir of 45 voices, directed by L. Robert Slusser, will sing at all three services.

Worshippers will be greeted by high school girls and ushered to their seats by high school boys.

Vicar Ordained

Rev. Louis C. Gillette, vicar of the Nativity Episcopal church, Birmingham, was recently ordained to the priesthood of the Episcopal church. Rites were performed by Bishop Richard S. Emrich at Christ Church Cranbrook. Rev. Gillette was ordained to the diaconate of the Episcopal church June 25, 1958.

Film to Be Shown To Women's Group

The Women's Fellowship of the Congregational church of Birmingham will have a luncheon Tuesday at 12:30 p.m. at the church.

The program will be a film, "The Touch of His Hand," written and filmed by Mr. William Deeney dealing with a leper colony in Bermuda. This film was selected by the American Committee for International Film Festivals, to represent the United States in 1957, and received several top awards.

Circle 1 will have charge of the luncheon. Reservation must be phoned into the church office by Monday.

Come to Supper—Watch Them Flip

Mary McKee, president of the Embury Methodist Youth Fellowship, and Sandra Nelles, vice president, were busy last week practicing for their annual pancake supper. The supper will be held in the church social hall, 11 Mile at Croft, Feb. 5, from 5:30 to 7 p.m. The menu consists of fluffy pancakes with butter and syrup, sausage, applesauce, coffee or milk and ice cream. All proceeds will be used for the Methodist Youth Fund. The fund helps foreign missions, youth programs and camps all over the world.
