Mr. and Mrs. Desimpel Motor to New Mexico

Gowned in bouquet taffeta, Lois Margaret O'Hara became the bride of Elmer Leo Desimpel Tuesday at Gesu church in Detroit. The Rev. Francis Stack performed the noon ceremony.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. J. H. O'Hara of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Desimpel of Harsdale road, Bloomfield Hills.

THE BRIDE'S GOWN was princess style with a bell shaped skirt and alencon lace embroidered with seed pearls and crystal beads forming a scoop neckline. A little shell of alencon lace held a fingertip length veil of French silk illusion. A bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis completed the bridal picture.

Mrs. Paul Gariepy, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Judson Decker, Joan Howe, Eva Stone and Jean Baldwin.

THEY WORE red velvet sheaths with empire bands of matching red satin. Their headpieces were small braided circles of matching velvet trimmed with seed pearls and circular veil. Their bouquets consisted of white fuji mums.

Walter Desimpel, brother of the groom, stood as best man. Seating the guests were James Desimpel, Paul Gariepy, Charles Rabaut, Dr. Robert Frear, William Schultz, James Barker and Leonard Healy, Jr.

The bride's mother chose a jewel-toned blue satin dress with matching small beaded hat. Mrs. Desimpel selected a beige silk brocade dress with matching colored petal hat. Both had orchids.
